Limited to 10 participants unless we have enough for two clinics

Clinic Goals: To provide youth the satisfaction and achievement of sewing a quilt with matching pillowcase in a safe and positive environment. Basic sewing/quilting skills will be introduced including selecting coordinating cotton prints, pre-washing fabric, pressing and cutting fabric and using a sewing machine while following instructions, practicing decision making skills, self-reliance, cooperation and dedication to complete a lengthy project.

Age/skills requirement: Must be 9 years or older. Some knowledge of sewing helpful but not required.

Supplies: Each participant will provide 3/4 yards of 10 coordinating fabrics for quilt. In addition bring 4.5 yards for backing. Batting will be provided. If you have your own sewing machine, we encourage you to bring your own, however machines will be available.

Contact: Pat Shamek 541-993-9560 or Stephanie Shamek 509-637-6250

Note: Please pre-wash your fabric!
