

Proper Care & Handling = Healthy, Happy Livestock!

We've all heard the story; someone bought a few goats, beef, or poultry only to have mishap after mishap. Just getting them home was a tale worthy of a comedy monologue.

Suddenly an investment in meat, milk, or fiber for table and market became a nightmare more costly than steak every night.

Learn how to keep your livestock investment 'in the black' at the Livestock Handling & Care workshops presented by the WSU Snohomish County Extension Agriculture and 4-H programs.

Taught by seniors and graduates from the WSU Snohomish County 4-H Livestock Program, instructors have the experience, know-how, and training needed to raise top-notch livestock and pass that knowledge on to others.

A flashdrive loaded with resources for all species will be provided to attendees.

Class size is limited; pre-paid registration required. Sign up now to save your spot.
