4-H Kitchen Activities

Many of the 4-H Kitchen Activities publications were revised in 2011 and 2013. While it is recommended that you use the newest publications, judges will provide leeway for those members using the previous materials.

Publications can be found online at: <https://pubs.wsu.edu>

C1099e 4-H Food Activity Worksheet

C1097e 4-H Food Activity Scoresheet Evaluation Criteria

EM4733e 4-H Food Activity Guidelines

C1098e 4-H Food Activity Scoresheet

Many of the 4-H Kitchen Activities publications were revised in 2011 and 2013. Guidelines for all foods activities, except table setting, may be found in EM4733e. The following activities will be conducted this year:

Foods for All Occasions (Individual or Team)

Food Preservation Activity

Bread Making Activity

My Favorite Foods

Lunch on the Go

Foods of the Pacific Northwest

Quick to Fix Meals

Table Setting Activity (please refer to C1075e and C1076e, which were revised in 2013)

In addition to the guidelines above, we will also use the following additional guidelines in Grays Harbor.

- 2) Junior, Intermediate, and Senior members may participate in any of the activities (please check time limits for each age group).

- 4) Please check in to the 4-H Kitchen Superintendent at least one hour before your scheduled time. We often have to make last minute scheduling adjustments. If you arrive early, we may have limited refrigerator space, so plan to use ice chests.
- 5) Participants will bring a completed 4-H Food Activity Worksheet (C1099e), along with required recipes and/or menus to the activity. Use parts of the worksheet that are suitable for your age group and activity.
- 6) Participants will bring their own cookware, table linens, cooking equipment, and any special equipment they may need.
- 7) Participants will bring their own hot pads or mitts, dishcloths, hand towels, and dish towels.
- 8) A table, sink, refrigerator, range, counter space, cutting board, knife, dish drainer, soap, and bleach will be provided.
- 9) In the Foods for All Occasions activity, the total cost is not to exceed $10 per person. Economy is encouraged. There will be no reimbursement to the participants for supplies.
- 10) We encourage all food to be purchased from an approved food source. Please keep safety in mind when packing your items and transporting them to the fairgrounds.
- 11) All food containers must be clean and free of foreign material. You no longer have to bring items in their original packages. Judges will closely monitor to see that items are clean and suitable for their use.
- 12) Indicate the total time needed (including set up, clean up, and interview) on the entry form.
- 13) Guests in the Foods for All Occasions activity will include only immediate family members of the participant.
