

Skagit Food for Skagit People
Steering Committee Meeting

Thursday May 14, 2015
3:30 pm – 5pm
Classroom

Attendance. Arla Mae Freeman, Florentina Baustista, Sarai Stevens, Sarah Clay, Erica Lamson, Eric Olsen, Lizette Flores, Diane Smith , Rita Ordonez, Cole Bitszenburg

Meeting Notes

Introductory Question. What did you like best about the Stakeholder meeting (April 21) at the SVC?

Good flow, room lay out good, balance of information, activity and engagement, well paced, good breaks, good food, focused, movement during breaks, planting seeds and play in the dirt, contacts made with folks, maps to share,

Stakeholder Meeting Review

1. Evaluations summary shared and discussed.
2. List of Organizations shared with discussion on others to invite to the next stakeholder meeting. Planning team to follow up with specific invites
3. Introductory activity on timeline: Global, Local, and Personal shared in illustrated format.
4. Stakeholder Response to Listening Session discussed with ideas shared on how to best represent the responses since much of it was in outline form

Preparation for Stakeholder Meeting June 23

Review Agenda and discuss how to incorporate policy, system and environment framework (socioecological model) with food system sectors and 7 themes identified in listening sessions.

Keynote speakers identified – Jason Miller and Marla Reed from Concrete to share PSE work in Concrete.

Panel presenters – Rosalinda Guillen, Community to Community; Sarai Stevens, Chuckanut Transition and Ellen Gray Food Policy Council

Closing Comments and evaluations completed.

Next meeting: Thursday June 11 3:30-5pm at WSU Extension Burlington