“Strategies for STEM Women Faculty Promotion and Career Development”

with Dana Britton, Ph.D.

Britton is Executive Director of the K-State ADVANCE Institutional Transformation project at Kansas State University and Professor of Sociology

Monday, October 3rd, 2011
CUE 219
1:15-2:15pm

Please join us!

Dr. Dana Britton is PI on an NSF funded “ADVANCE Partnerships for Adaptation, Implementation, and Dissemination (PAID) Award: PROMOTE – Improving the Promotion to Full Processes at Western Public Universities.” For this project she conducted 178 interviews with Associate and Full science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) faculty on 13 campuses. Since 2006, Dr. Britton has served as editor-in-chief of the journal Gender & Society, the top ranked social science journal in gender studies. Britton is a widely recognized expert on issues of gender and work, and has given invited addresses about her work at many national and international conferences. She is the author of a 2003 book, At Work in the Iron Cage: The Prison as Gendered Organization, an edited volume, a forthcoming book, and numerous refereed articles and chapters dealing with gender, work, and organizations.