The Worst Election Ever?
Putting ugly and negative campaigns in context

Tuesday November 1 | 12:00 p.m.
Foley Speaker’s Room | 308 Bryan Hall

Cornell Clayton is the Director of the Thomas S. Foley Institute and Thomas S. Foley Distinguished Professor of Government and Public Policy. His work focuses on constitutional law, political discourse, and civility in American politics.

Travis Ridout is Thomas S. Foley Distinguished Professor of Government and Public Policy. He specializes in political communication, media, and political behavior.

Join us! Pizza and soda will be served.