

*Pacific Northwest
Political Science Association*

2012 Annual Meeting

November 8-10

Hotel Monaco

Portland, OR

PNWPSA Officers

President

Mathew Manweller, Central Washington University

President Elect 2012-13

Todd Donovan, Western Washington University

Secretary-Treasurer

Erin Richards, Cascadia Community College

Executive Council

Maria Chavez-Pringle, Pacific Lutheran University

Paul Chen, Western Washington University

Eliot Dickinson, Western Oregon University

Robin Jacobson, University of Puget Sound

Rorie Spill Solberg, Oregon State University

Ex-Officio

Carolyn Long, Washington State University, Vancouver

Executive Director

Richard Elgar, Washington State University

Thursday, November 8

- 4–8pm Registration
HOTEL LOBBY
- 4:30–6pm Executive Council Meeting
WENDEL BOARDROOM
- 6–8pm Opening Reception
RED STAR CLUB ROOM

Friday, November 9

Session # 1 8:30 to 10:00am

1-A Race Ethnicity and Politics I—America’s Abandoned Youth: Preliminary Findings of Undocumented Youth in the Northwest

WENDEL BOARDROOM

Chair /Discussant: Martín Meráz García, Eastern Washington University

Maria Chávez, Pacific Lutheran University, Jessica Lavariega Monforti, University of Texas-Pan American, and Melissa R. Michelson, Menlo College

“America’s Abandoned Youth: Political Socialization Among Undocumented Youth”

Benjamin Gonzalez, University of Washington

“The Undocumented Threat: Public Opinion, Crimmigration and the Media”

Martin Meráz Garcia, Eastern Washington University

“Eliminating Barriers to Higher Education for Undocumented Students in Washington State”

1-B International Relations

FIFTH AVE. ROOM B

Chair/ Discussant: Ross E. Burkhart, Boise State University

Joshua Hastey, John Henzel, and Jennifer Ijichi, Seton Hall University

"Explaining the Causes of the 1979 Sino-Vietnamese War: Optimism, Balancing, and Windows"

Alan Siaroff, University of Lethbridge

"Are Oscillating States Found along a Dividing Line? Democracies, Autocracies, Oscillating States, and Their Location"

Nicolas Thompson, University of Oregon

"The Federal Reserve System's Origin in American Political Development"

1-C Contentious Reforms of 2012 Roundtable

FIFTH AVE. ROOM A

"Contentious Reform and the 2012 Election:
Health Care, Immigration, and Same-Sex Marriage"

Dan Tichenor (University of Oregon)

Allison Gash (University of Oregon)

Melissa Buis Michaux (Willamette University)

1-D Ancient Political Theory

LIPMAN & WOLFE ROOM A

Chair: Curtis Johnson, Lewis & Clark College

Discussant: John Holzwarth, Lewis & Clark College

Nick Smith, Lewis & Clark College

"Sons and Fathers in Plato's Euthyphro and Crito"

Peter Steinberger, Reed College

"The Eumenides and the Invention of Politics"

Curtis Johnson, Lewis & Clark College
“Shame as a Strategy of Debate in Three Socratic Dialogues”

Session # 2
10:15 – 11:30am

2-A Religion & Political Theory

FIFTH AVE. ROOM A

Chair/Discussant: Ben Mitchell, U.S. Military Academy West Point

David Gutterman, Willamette University
“From Exodus to Joshua: Barack Obama and the Story of American Identity”

Paul Chen, Western Washington University
“Religious Foundations of Political Pluralism: The Political Thought of Abraham Kuyper”

Chana Cox, Lewis & Clark College
“Further Investigations of a Dog: 20th century methodological presuppositions and religious political theories”

Bill Parsons, Carroll College
“The Scene of the Crime: Machiavelli’s Initial Indictment of Christianity in The Prince”

2-B Peace and Conflict Studies

FIFTH AVE. ROOM B

Chair: Edwin Taylor, Missouri Western State University

Discussant : Edward Duggan, University of Oregon

Heidi Hall, Willamette University
“The Scales of Justice: Exploring Individual Responsibility for Mass Violence in International Criminal Tribunals”

Edwin Taylor, Missouri Western State University

"Enter the Peace Makers: Women's Peace Activists and the Northern Ireland Good Friday Agreement"

James Treu, Benedictine College

"Bringing Thought to the Intervention Lever: Confronting an Ahistorical, Apolitical, Astrategic Culture to Resist and Rethink the Next Iraq or Afghanistan"

2-C Gender and Politics

LIPMAN & WOLFE ROOM A

Chair/Discussant: Sandra Reineke, University of Idaho

Season Hoard, Washington State University

"Women's Movement Change: Conceptualization, Measurement and Investigation"

Sandra Reineke, University of Idaho

"Reproductive Rights and Wrongs: Surrogate Motherhood and Fetal Abductions in the United States since Roe vs. Wade"

11:30am—1:15pm

Don Balmer Election Post-Mortem Luncheon

With: Don Balmer

David Ammons

Alex Hays

Session # 3
1:30- 2:45pm

3-A Comparative Politics—Electoral, Social and Military Movements

FIFTH AVE. ROOM A

Chair: Laretta Frederking, University of Portland

Discussant: Anne Santiago, University of Portland

Joseph Deckert, University of Oregon

"Election Fraud and Mexico's Democratic Transition"

Andrew Schlewitz, Grand Valley State University

"The Not-So-Revolutionary Origins of the Guatemalan November 13th Movement"

Eliot Assoudeh, University of Nevada and Debra Salazar, Western Washington University

"Network Structure and the Nature of Contention in an Authoritarian Regime: A Comparison of the Women's and Student Movements in Iran"

Barbara Salera, Washington State University

"Social Capital Creation in Coastal Zanzibar"

3-B Law and Courts—The Roberts Court

FIFTH AVE. ROOM B

Chair: Alison Gash, University of Oregon

Discussant: Howard Katz, Elon University School of Law

Lucas McMillan and Cornell Clayton, Washington State University

"Context is Everything: The Roberts Court in a Polarized Political Regime"

David Root, University of Oregon

“When Law and Politics Meet: The Supreme Court as a Political Actor in NFIB v. Sebelius”

Chris Shortell, Portland State University

“The Roberts Court and Federalism: Reconsidering in the Wake of the 2011 Term”

Dino Christensen and David Glick, Boston University

“Strategic Retreat Disrobed: Does it Matter that People Know About Roberts' Health Care Flip?”

3-C American Political Thought

WENDEL BOARDROOM

Chair/Discussant: Steve Shone, Gonzaga University

John Holzwarth, Lewis & Clark College

“What We Don't Know About Human Autonomy”

Nick Buccola, Linfield College

“What to the Slave is the Value of Relativism? Frederick Douglass on Natural Law”

Bill Curtis, University of Portland

“Rorty's Liberalism from Left and Right”

Ben Mitchell, U.S. Military Academy West Point

“Explaining American Statesmanship”

3-D Current Political Issues in the Pacific Northwest Roundtable

LIPMAN & WOLFE ROOM A

Chair: Clive S. Thomas, Washington State University

Alaska: Clive S. Thomas, Washington State University

Idaho: Don Crowley, University of Idaho

Oregon: Russ Dondero, Pacific University

Washington: T. M. Sell, Highline College

Utah: Ronald J. Hrebenar, University of Utah

Session # 4

3:00 – 4:15pm

4-A Race, Ethnicity and Politics II—The State of Affairs of Chicano/Latinos in the Northwest and Beyond

FIFTH AVE. ROOM A

Chair/Discussant: Gilberto Garcia, Central Washington University

Gilberto Garcia, Central Washington University

“The State Commissions on Hispanic and Latino Affairs in the New England Latino Communities”

Amy Núñez, Eastern Washington University

“Secondary Education in the Yakima School District”

Carina Silva, Eastern Washington University

“Migrant Seasonal Head Starts: The Road to Success?”

Mariana G. Garcia, Eastern Washington University

“Educational Challenges of ELL/ESL for Chicano/Latino
Students”

Francis Benjamin, Washington State University

“Political Discrimination: New Young Voter’s Treatment of Others”

4-B Environmental Politics

LIPMAN & WOLFE ROOM A

Chair/Discussant: Daniel Sherman, University of Puget Sound

Troy Abel, Western Washington University

“Civic Conservation in Cascadia: Wildlife Borders, Barriers, and Breakthroughs”

Caleb Henry, Seattle Pacific University

"Free Market Environmentalism: A Hayekian Solution with Hayekian Limitations"

Amy D. Northrup, University of Nevada Las Vegas and Edward P. Weber, Oregon State University

“New Strategies, Policies, and Organizations: The Transformation of the Wilderness Movement into Neo-Conservationism”

Paul Thiers and Heather Pierce, WSU-Vancouver

"Assessing the Clean Development Mechanism in Rural China: Can Ecological Modernization function in an Authoritarian Context?"

4-C Obama Presidency Roundtable

FIFTH AVE. ROOM B

Chair: Mathew Manweller, Central Washington University

Dan Tichenor, University of Oregon

Richard Ellis, Willamette University

Russ Dondero, Pacific University

Mark Henkels, Western Oregon University

Saturday, November 10th

8:30-9:30am Business Meeting and Elections

FIFTH AVE. ROOM B

Session #5

9:30-10:45am

5-A Public Policy II- Resource Management & Public Policy

FIFTH AVE. ROOM A

Chair: Mark Stephan, Washington State University

Discussant: Jahi Chappell, Washington State University

Christopher A. Simon, University of Utah

“Electricity, Public Policy, and Institutions: An Overview of Generation by Energy Source, 1975-2010”

Lynn Finley, Washington State University

“Organic Farming—An Opportunity for Job Creation”

Joshua Newman, Simon Fraser University

“Measuring Policy Success in Public-Private Partnership: Case Studies from Canada and Australia”

5-B Voting and Elections—Contemporary Electoral Issues

FIFTH AVE. ROOM B

Chair: Priscilla Southwell, University of Oregon

Discussant: Kevin Pirch, Eastern Washington University

Joe Deckert, University of Oregon

"Election Fraud: Theory and Techniques for Election Forensics"

David Brockington, University of Plymouth

"Elections and State Level Support for the ACA"

Rorie Spill Solberg, Oregon State University
"Obama, Judicial Appointments, and Intersectionality"

Priscilla Southwell, University of Oregon
"Young Voters after the 2008 Election: A Disappearing Act?"

Kevin Pirch, Eastern Washington University
"Election Update"

5-C Nationalism & Other Mistakes

LIPMAN & WOLFE ROOM A

Chair/Discussant: Andrew Valls, Oregon State University

Sammy Basu, Willamette University
"On not taking Schmitt seriously: irony and the democratic prospects of the Weimar Republic"

Samuel Bernofsky, University of Oregon
"Hannah Arendt, Alternative Constructions within Zionist Nationalism"

Alex Sager, Portland State University
"Methodological Nationalism, Migration, and Political Theory"

Session # 6 11:00 – 12:15

6-A American Politics

FIFTH AVE. ROOM B

Chair: Jennifer Hehnke, University of Oregon

Discussant: Justin Vaughn, Boise State University

Jeremy Strickler, University of Oregon
"The Presidency, Political Mobilization, and the Coming of War: FDR's Domestic Agenda-Setting during World War II"

Justin Vaughn, Boise State University

“The Creation of the Czar Myth: Examining the Divergence between Presidential Rhetoric and Media Coverage of White House Policy Leadership”

Gary Bullert, Columbia Basin College

“The Committee for Cultural Freedom and the Roots of McCarthyism”

George Hawley, University of Houston

“What Determines Congressional Behavior on Immigration?”

Debasis Bhattacharya, University of Oregon

“Legislative-Executive Relations and U.S. Foreign Policy: Continuum of Consensus and Dissension in Treaty Process”

6-B Comparative Politics II—Transitions in Developed Democracies

FIFTH AVE. ROOM A

Chair: Laretta Frederking, University of Portland

Discussant: Ross Burkhart, Boise State University

Todd Donovan, Western Washington University, David

Denemark, University of West Australia, and Richard Niemi,
University of Rochester

“Generations and Democratic Attitudes in Advanced Democracies”

Michael Wright, Georgia Southern University

“Domestic Leverage: Member State Motives on Turkey Joining the EU”

Claude Pomerleau, University of Portland

“Lucky Brazil - So Close to God and so far from the US”

6-C Applied Political Theory

LIPMAN & WOLFE ROOM A

Chair/Discussant: Sid Olufs, Pacific Lutheran University

Brian Elliott, Portland State University
“Democracy, Education, and School Reform”

Brian Thomas, Simon Fraser University
“Identifying Tensions in Attempts to Address Social Injustice:
Connections Between Immigration and Indigeneity”

Maxwell Mensinger, Willamette University
“In My Ear a Thoughtless Drone”

The Association would like to thank the following for their generous support of this year's meeting:

Graduate Student Travel Grants

Clive S. Thomas

Welcome Reception

Department of Political Science

University of Oregon

Department of Political Science

University of Portland

Political Science Department

Western Washington University

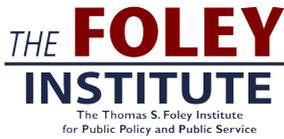

School of Politics, Philosophy, and Public Affairs

Washington State University

The Thomas S. Foley Institute for Public Policy and Public Service was established at Washington State University in 1995 with a congressional endowment to honor the service of former Speaker of the House, Thomas S. Foley.

The Institute's mission is to foster civic education and public affairs program, promote public service, and promote public policy research in a nonpartisan, cross-disciplinary

The Thomas S. Foley Institute for Public Policy and Public Service was established at Washington State University in 1995 with a congressional endowment to honor the service of former Speaker of the House, Thomas S. Foley.

The Institute's mission is to foster civic education and public affairs program, promote public service, and promote public policy research in a nonpartisan, cross-disciplinary setting.

www.foley.wsu.edu