Foley Distinguished Lecture

Trump and the Changing Political Landscape in America

Wednesday February 1 | 4:30 p.m.

CUB Auditorium

Paul Pierson is the John Gross Chair and Professor of Political Science at the University of California at Berkeley. Pierson received his Ph.D. from Yale University and he is a prolific, award-winning author and researcher. His most recent book is American Amnesia: How the War on Government Led Us to Forget What Made America Prosper.

During spring semester the Foley Institute is hosting a series of events focused on the incoming Trump administration and its impact on American politics. Professor Pierson's address will keynote this series.
