

Coffee with your legislators

Wednesday December 13 | 12 noon
Foley Speaker's Room | 308 Bryan Hall

Join the delegation from Washington State's 9th District, which includes Pullman, as they discuss the upcoming legislative session in Olympia.

Sen. Mark Schoesler is the Majority Leader in the Washington State Senate, and has represented Washington's 9th Legislative District since 1993. He is on the Ways and Means and Rules Committees. He lives in Ritzville.

Rep. Mary Dye was re-elected to a second term in the legislature in 2015. She serves on the Environment and Capital Budget Committees. She lives in Pomeroy.

Rep. Joe Schmick was first elected to the State House in 2006. He serves on the House Appropriations Committee and the House Agricultural and Natural Resources Committee. He lives in Colfax.