

PACIFIC NORTHWEST POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION
ANNUAL MEETING 2021
November 11-13
Royal Sonesta Hotel, Portland

Thursday

5:00-6:30pm: Registration and informal drinks + catch up

HOTEL LOBBY

Friday

8:30-10:00am: Assessment & Pedagogy, Indigenous Politics, Political Psychology 1

ASSESSMENT & PEDAGOGY

Reenvisioning the political science major: where to go in a post-pandemic world?

LIPMAN WOLFE 1

Rob Harbaugh, College of Western Idaho
Parakh Hoon, South Sound Community College
Erin Richards, Cascadia College

INDIGENOUS POLITICS

LIPMAN WOLFE 2

Chair & Discussant: Erika Allen Wolters, Oregon State University

Shane Day and Direlle Calica, Portland State University, and Michaela Stroup-Madrid, Sovereign Bodies Institute

“The unusual variance in state-Tribal relations of federally-recognized Tribes in Oregon”

Cole Grisham, Portland State University

“Does collaboration matter? Regional transportation policy in Alaskan native villages”

Margo Hill, Eastern Washington University, and Mel Tonasket

“As long as I live...I will never give up this land”

POLITICAL PSYCHOLOGY I

ALDER CREEK

Chair: Kylee Britzman, Lewis-Clark State College

Discussant Todd Donavan, Western Washington University

Kylee Britzman, Lewis-Clark State College

“Does the messenger shape the message’s effect? Race, Black Lives Matter, and the efficacy of social movement messages”

Olyvia Christley, University of Virginia

“Subconscious gender attitudes and the appeal of the radical right: Experimental evidence”

Christopher Stout, Oregon State University

“How Black Lives Matter shapes the rhetoric of Black elected officials”

10:15-11:45am: Comparative Politics, Law & Courts, State & Local Politics

COMPARATIVE POLITICS

LIPMAN WOLFE 1

Chair & Discussant: Season Hoard, Washington State University

Anthony Caito, Corban University

“Fostering trust between strangers in the State of Nature: Introducing the Generalized Trust in Fragile States Research Program”

Samiksha Goyal (Monash University) and Joe Campbell, Washington State University

“Berlin and Gandhi on Value Pluralism”

Robert Herold, Boise State University

“A few problems with the quantitative approach in political science”

Patrick Mahoney, Washington State University, and Todd Nelson, Cleveland State University

“War, memory, and nostalgia: Militarization as a consequence of post-Soviet uncertainty in Russia”

Sandra Reineke, University of Idaho

“Reproductive and genetic technology policy making and citizenship rights in France, Germany and the United States”

LAW & COURTS

LIPMAN WOLFE 2

Chair: Rorie Solberg, Oregon State University

Discussant: Scott Lemieux, University of Washington

Cornell Clayton, Washington State University and J. Mitchell Pickerill, Northern Illinois University

“Conservatives and the Courts: What a Long Strange Trip it’s Been”

Mark McKenzie, Texas Tech University

“Beyond partisanship? Assessing the influence of party identification on judicial decision making in redistricting cases in the federal district courts

Eric Waltenburg, Purdue University and Rorie Solberg, Oregon State University

“Ideology, partisanship and judicial behavior”

STATE, LOCAL, AND PROVINCIAL POLITICS

ALDER CREEK

Chair & Discussant: Priscilla Southwell, University of Oregon

William Haltom, University of Puget Sound

“What Goldilocks, Sherlock Holmes, modules, and maps might yet teach me about teaching U.S. government and politics”

B. Kal Munis, Utah Valley University, and Nicholas Jacobs, Colby College

“The individual foundations of America’s urban rural divide: Geographic resentment in the 2018 and 2020 elections”

Kevin Pirch, Eastern Washington University

“Still a happy conservative warrior? An examination of voters rage and happiness in the 2020 presidential election”

12:00-1:15pm: Lunch and Supreme Court Roundtable – all welcome to attend.

Meal tickets, if required, should be purchased in advance

SUPREME COURT ROUNDTABLE

RED STAR RESTAURANT

Moderator: Rorie Solberg, Oregon State University

Scott Lemieux, University of Washington

Mark McKenzie, Texas Tech University

Eric N. Waltenburg, Purdue University

1:30-3:00pm: International Relations, Media & Politics I, Triple Crisis Roundtable

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

LIPMAN WOLFE 1

Chair and Discussant: Leif S. Hoffmann, Lewis-Clark State College

Isaac Castellano, Boise State University

“A levels of analysis approach to security”

Mary Durfee, Michigan Technological University

“The ‘Who’ in US-Canada/Great Britain treaties”

Andy Hira, Simon Fraser University

“The Shell Game of socially responsible investing”

Bi Zhao, Whitworth University

“Framing justice at the United Nations climate summits”

MEDIA & POLITICS I

LIPMAN WOLFE 2

Chair & Discussant: Kylee Britzman, Lewis-Clark State College

Furkan Cakmak and Travis Ridout, Washington State University

“When losing matters: Emotional response to political loss and news media choice”

Tim Chatburn, Washington State University

“Rural opinion, urban opinion: Examining how place based identity influences political views”

B. Kal Munis, Utah Valley University and Richard Burke, University of Virginia

“Talk local to Me: Assessing the heterogenous effects of localistic appeals”

TRIPLE CRISIS ROUNDTABLE

What lessons emerged for governance and policy from our triple climate, covid, and racism crises?

ALDER CREEK

Moderator: Troy Abel, Western Washington University

Discussant: Wendy Prosser, JSI

Troy Abel, Western Washington University

Vernon Johnson, Western Washington University

Mark Stefan, Washington State University

3:15-4:45pm: Environment & Public Policy I, Gender & Politics, Media & Politics II,
 poster session,

ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICS AND POLICY I

LIPMAN WOLFE 1

Chair & Discussant: Troy Abel, Western Washington University

Troy Abel, Western Washington University, Mark Stephan, Washington State University, and Raechel Youngberg, Western Washington University

“The Sound of Natural Resource Governance: Assessing Washington’s Estuarine Recovery Efforts”

Stacey Bauer and David Bernell, Oregon State University

“Natural and working lands policy: A less-traveled road toward carbon neutrality in Oregon”

Ryan Hasert, Oregon State University

“A deep dive into ocean acidification policy and priorities in Oregon and California”

Erika Allen Wolters and Brent Steel, Oregon State University

“Cultural theory, information source reliance, and homeowner firewise behaviors in central Oregon”

GENDER & POLITICS

LIPMAN WOLFE 2

Chair: Laci Hubbard-Mattix, Washington State University

Discussants: Season Hoard & Laci Hubbard-Mattix, Washington State University

Yin-Ru Chen, Washington State University

“The program evaluation of gender mainstreaming in Taiwan”

Season Hoard, Washington State University

“The strongest law in the U.S. is still not strong enough: California equal pay and its impacts”

Laci Hubbard-Mattix & Samantha Noll, Washington State University

“Developing a just framework: The necessity of considering history in developing new reproductive technologies”

MEDIA & POLITICS II

ALDER CREEK

Chair: Travis Ridout, Washington State University

Discussants: Furkan Cakmak & Travis Ridout, Washington State University

Jeffrey Meiser, University of Portland, Girma Parris, Case Western Reserve University, and Karl Kahambwe, University of Portland

“A hip hop theory of antiracism”

Todd Schaefer, Central Washington University

“If a Republican man bites an elephant, is it Fox News? Coverage of Trump attacks on Members of Congress in a partisan media environment”

Edwin Taylor III, Missouri Western State University

“Libertarian themes in American adult cartoon programming: The Adventures of Rick and Morty”

POSTER SESSION

Posters will be in the same room as the membership meeting and social event, so can be viewed at that time too

RED STAR RESTAURANT

Caitlin Boss, Washington State University
“Christianity, spirituality, and conspiracy theories”

Hannah Williams, University of Puget Sound
“The foundation of an uprising: Spatial socialization and identity formation in Hong Kong’s civil society”

5:00pm: Membership meeting and social event with drinks and nibbles

Saturday

9:00-10:30am: Roundtable PNW issues

POLITICAL ISSUES IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

ALDER CREEK

Idaho: Leif Hoffmann
Oregon: Mark Henkels
Washington: TM Sell

10:45-12:15pm: Environment & Public Policy II, Political Psychology II, Voting & Elections

ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICS AND POLICY II

LIPMAN WOLFE 1

Chair & Discussant: Erika Allen Wolters, Oregon State University

Thomas Campbell, Boise State University
“Climate shocks and violent conflict incentives: Evidence from the Indian sub-continent”

Kate Darby, Western Washington University
“#Stinkburgh: Sensory experiences and environmental justice”

Jann Eberharter, Western Washington University
“Salmon restoration and recognition injustices for Salish Tribes: Exploring colonial narratives for the Skagit river”

Paulina Lopez, Adrienne Hampton, Ruby Vigo, and Magdalena Angel-Cano, Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition

“Clean air for everyone, everywhere: Fighting for environmental justice in Seattle’s Duwamish Valley”

POLITICAL PSYCHOLOGY II

LIPMAN WOLFE 2

Chair: Kylee Britzman, Lewis-Clark State College
Discussant: Leif Hoffmann, Lewis-Clark State College

Abbas Mammadov, Washington State University
“The impact of Putin’s personality traits on Russia’s decisions in Donbas and Nagorno-Karabakh”

Michael Ritter, Washington State University
“Emotion management and the 2008 to 2020 U.S. elections”

Sebastian Ruiz, Washington State University and Pedro Valenca de Melo, Universidade NOVA de Lisboa

“Enter Bolsonaro: How current Brazilian foreign policy reflects the president’s psychological profile”

VOTING & ELECTIONS

ALDER CREEK

Chair & Discussant: Kevin Pirch, Eastern Washington University

Todd Donovan, Western Washington University, and Caroline Tolbert and Samuel Harper, University of Iowa

“Voter engagement with ranked choice voting in New York City”

Michael Goldsby and Michael Ritter, Washington State University

“Testing the two dogmas of election forecasting”

Priscilla Southwell, University of Oregon

“Voter fraud: A thorny issue or a non-issue?”

12:30pm: Conference ends