

THE FOLEY INSTITUTE

The Thomas S. Foley Institute for Public Policy and Public Service

In Collaboration with the WSU President's Office presents

Washington Supreme Court Holds Hearings at WSU Pullman

Come see the Supreme Court in action beginning at 9:00. The Court will hear oral arguments in three cases. Immediately following the first two cases the justices will answer questions from the audience. Oral arguments in the third case will begin at 1:30. Both sessions are open to students and the public.

9:00-11:00

State v. Kramer: Whether bail should be forfeited when the bail bond company advised a defendant to turn himself in but did not alert authorities to the defendant's whereabouts.

Otis Housing Association, Inc. v. Ha: Whether an arbitration clause in a lease option contract lapses when the underlying option to buy lapses.

11:00-12:00 noon - Q & A with the Justices

1:30-2:30

In re Pers. Restraint of Tobin, Douglas Tobin v. State: Whether the trial courts should consider unranked fish and wildlife violations in a defendant's offender score for sentencing purposes.

Thursday, September 25, 9:00 – 12:00, 1:30-2:30
CUB Ballroom