“Learning from Plutonium and Uranium Workers”

Background

- In 2013, Washington State University, College of Pharmacy established the Anthony C. James (ACJ) scholarship in honor of former USTUR Director, Tony James. Tony's own education was supported primarily through scholarships and he would have been very enthusiastic of a scholarship that allows others to do the same. The scholarship once endowed will benefit students at WSU in the fields of science and technology.

WSU Foundation

- To endow a scholarship the minimum is $25,000
- Once endowed the scholarship will be invested in WSU Foundation's endowment pool
- A percentage of the 36-month rolling average is distributed to WSU Foundation to benefit fundraising and investment management
