

NOMINATIONS FOR HONORARY DOCTORAL DEGREES

Recommendations for potential recipients of honorary doctoral degrees from WSU are accepted by the Honorary Doctoral Degrees Committee. The nomination process requires completion of the nomination form below and submission of a detailed letter addressing the nominee's eminence in his or her field. The letter should also describe the nominee's literary, artistic, or scientific contributions that have enhanced the intellectual climate of the University. The nomination form, letter of nomination, and the nominee's resume or vita should be sent to:

Honorary Doctoral Degree Committee
PO Box 641048
French Ad Room 422
Pullman, WA 99164-1048

Nominees should not be informed that they are under consideration. Recipients of honorary degrees may not hold a degree from WSU and may not receive the degree in consideration of monetary payments or giving of any type of property according to RCW 28B.30.150 (15).

The Committee will review the materials and request additional information if necessary. Materials for nominees recommended by the Committee are simultaneously forwarded to the Faculty Senate and President for consideration. If both the Faculty Senate and President recommend a nominee, the materials are submitted to the Board of Regents for a final decision.
