E. Reservation Fee:

A reservation fee of $1257.75 is required to secure your reservation. This fee shall apply to the remaining balance and is non-refundable and non-transferable. At the end of the stay, a final balance will be determined including any charge for damage and excessive wear to facilities, linens, furnishings, lost keys, carpet or equipment or the like. 30 days prior to the event 50% of the anticipated fee which is equal to $6286.75 and is non-refundable and non-transferable, is due. The balance is due within 30 days upon receipt of invoice. The signed agreement and reservation fee must arrive at Ross Point on or before 4/15/2011 (faxed copies need only include pages 1-5). If changes to this agreement are required, please call the office.

F. Payment:

The registrar is required to provide the necessary figures to enable Ross Point to complete the financial settlement during the group's stay. The group shall pay all charges accruing under this Agreement in full within 30 days of the receipt of invoice. Failure to make payment as agreed will result in a fee of 1% of the total bill per week or part of a week from the agreed financial settlement day.

G. Other Ross Point users:

Ross Point reserves the right to contract for its facility use by more than one group at a time. Separate meeting and sleeping space will be provided for each group. Shared dining room and meal times may be scheduled.

H. Ross Point Regulations

All attendees must abide by the Ross Point policies and procedures, both verbal and posted. The group agrees that it shall bear the responsibility to inform all its attendees of policies and procedures of Ross Point. Ross Point staff will conduct an additional orientation to regulations and safety procedures upon group's arrival. If the group or its members shall violate those rules and regulations the group may be asked to leave.

1. Emergency assistance & transportation can be summoned by dialing 911. A public phone is located in the entrance lobby. Dial "9" to access an outside line. Staff may be contacted using the phone numbers posted in the Lodge entrance lobby.

2. For the safety of all guests, each group should maintain a complete roster of every member of the group including name and address, emergency contact names and numbers, known allergies or health conditions requiring treatment, restrictions, or other accommodations, and signed permission to treat minors unaccompanied by parent or guardian. All conference must be registered. Each group is responsible to provide its own registrar. Rosters and housing charts are available to assist in housing assignments.

3. The Group agrees to provide on-site leader, registrar, sufficient counselors for youth, Health Care Manager current in First Aid and CPR from a nationally recognized provider, first aid supplies for first aid and medication dispensing, and other needed staff. 13. Quiet Time is between 11:00 pm and 6:00 am and everyone should be as quiet as possible, respecting the privacy of other groups and neighbors.

14. Campfires are permitted only in designated fire rings. Water must be available at each fire. Extinguish all fires completely before leaving the area.

15. Waterfront: Ross Point is not liable for a lifeguard unless formally contracted. Supervision of waterfront activities is the responsibility of the Group. At least one member of the Group should hold a current lifeguard certificate, be current in First Aid and CPR from a nationally recognized provider, and available at the waterfront. Current water front rules must be followed. All boats must be returned and locked and the office must be notified of activity completion. An activity safety orientation must be conducted prior to waterfront activities. The Aqua Toy may only be used when a lifeguard is on duty. Family campers must have a parent on duty if a lifeguard is not on duty.

16. Personal boats and watercrafts may be brought to Ross Point and used at the sole responsibility of the individual.

17. Ross Point assumes no responsibility for Lost & Found items.

18. All games or play will be limited to recreation areas. Personal sports equipment is the responsibility of each individual.

19. At the end of the day, the last one out of a room should turn off lights. At the end of your stay, return furniture to its original position, close doors and windows, turn off lights, and turn down heat.

20. Use only masking tape or tacky adhesive to hang posters, etc. on the walls.

21. No alterations to Ross Point grounds, buildings, facilities or equipment is permitted. All facilities are subject to inspection and approval by Ross Point before the Group leaves. The Group is financially liable for any breakage, damage, losses, or facilities or furnishings left unreasonably dirty by its members.
