

Discussions

Ask questions

What are the interpretations of the present results?

What are the new findings what we did not understand/know before the present research work?

YES

What are the evidences/ logics/reasonings (similar research and background information) that can support interpretations of the results?

What is the significance/importance of the research/Why should we care?

