

Results

Ask Questions

What are logical segments of results that could be presented with sufficient details using subheadings?

Observations of findings

What are the key results/actual statements of observations ?(Tables, Figures, Artifacts)

Remember not to interpret your result in the result section and save it for the discussion section

What is the nature of the findings (range of variation) from observations and statistical analysis (Tables, Figures, Artifacts)?

What are the relationships, trends and generalizations among the results? (positive/negative results)

Are there any exceptions in patterns of results?

Are observations of the findings clearly stated?