3.0 Responsibilities

GMEC through the DIO; Associate Dean for GME; Assistant Regional DIOs

4.0 Procedures

ESFCOM will not tolerate any conduct that constitutes Unlawful Harassment or Unlawful Sexual Harassment by anyone including supervisors, co-workers, medical staff, visitors, patients, vendors, independent contractors and others doing business with ESFCOM.

All individuals associated with the Institution, including employees, faculty, and Trainees are responsible for ensuring a Harassment-free environment. Each member of the community is responsible for fostering mutual respect, for being familiar with this policy and for refraining from conduct that violates this policy. These policies are located in the ESFCOM GME Handbook and on the ESFCOM GME website with full contact information for reporting and following up on a complaint.

It is the responsibility of each Program Director and Faculty to monitor stress levels, personal well-being and behavior for signs of inappropriate behavior among Trainees. Inappropriate behavior can be reported directly to the Program Director, Director of GME, Assistant DIOs, DIO, or anonymously via the ESFCOM GME Hotline. Medical staff, nurses, patients or visitors may also report instances of inappropriate Trainee behavior to the Program Director or Faculty for review and investigation.

All faculty and Trainees are to become familiar with the EFSCOM and WSU Harassment Policies and ESFCOM’s Code of Conduct. Harassment will not be tolerated. Any Trainee found to have engaged in Harassment will be subject to severe disciplinary action, up to and including discharge from the applicable training program.

The Program Director and appropriate party at the clinical site are to be involved in reviewing and investigating all Trainee related incidents of harassment. Resolutions may include implementation of disciplinary protocols outlined in the WSU policy or at the clinical site. If the clinical site’s policy stands silent on an issue, the WSU policy provides the process.

The DIO is responsible for sharing the status of the investigation with the Trainee throughout the process.
GME Harassment Policy

If the Trainee or faculty member disagrees with the decision, either party can appeal the decision through the GME Grievance and Due Process policy or if faculty, directly to the Dean.

Protection from Retaliation
Retaliation in any form is a violation of the ESFCOM Code of Conduct as outlined in the faculty handbook and human resource policies. Appropriate action is to be taken to protect the Trainees from harm or any type of retaliation. Faculty, Trainees, staff and administrators who are accused of harassment are informed that retaliation is regarded as a violation of University Policy and is managed as a separate and distinct form of mistreatment.

The institution prohibits acts of reprisal against anyone involved in lodging a good faith complaint. Conversely, the institution considers intentionally filing false reports of Harassment a violation of this policy.

Rights of the Accuser and Accused
The accuser and accused will have rights to the following: a) due process, b) confidentiality c) a fair, thorough and timely investigation and d) communication regarding the outcome of the complaint (in keeping with privacy policies).
