As WSU’s Carson College of Business looks strengthen their position as a thought leader within retail-industry research, this survey aims to:

- Identify the factors that drive online and/or in-store shopping preferences
- Assess the sentiments and behaviors around shopping on Thanksgiving, Black Friday, Small Business Saturday, and Cyber Monday
- Understand decision-making behavior while holiday shopping and explore how consumers plan to shop this holiday season, as well as how that compares to last year
- Complement existing research done by Carson College of Business professors within the retail industry

OBJECTIVES
IN-STORE LEADS IN SPEED BUT ONLINE IS MORE CONVENIENT
43% of people state they do more online shopping, compared to last year
70% of people appreciate the ability to try on items in-stores
70% of people enjoy the ability to shop whenever they need to online

CYBER MONDAY ALLOWS CONSUMERS TO ENJOY FAMILY TIME
78% of people appreciate stores that stay closed on Thanksgiving
60% of people prefer shopping Cyber Monday
84% of people feel like Black Friday used to be an event

HOLIDAY SHOPPING WILL BE COST EFFECTIVE AND LOCAL 89% of people think there’s no need to spend a fortune for holiday gifts
66% of people will shop locally in store
