

TRI-CITIES RESOURCE SCAVENGER HUNT

1. Who could you go to on campus to talk with about your mental health?
2. Where can you go on campus if you had a question about your schedule or major curriculum?
3. Where could you go on campus to seek career advice or learn about Internships?
4. From the Pullman Campus, who could you contact at the Carson College of Business Center to assist you with Study Abroad questions?
5. If you need reasonable accommodations (i.e. documented disabilities or extra time to take exams) who would you contact?
6. Who can help you apply for scholarships and how often do you need to apply?
7. What is the program that WSUTC and Lamb Weston have partnered to provide to the student population?
8. What service can a first generation student utilize to help them navigate through their collegiate career?
9. Which office provides support and assistance for student veterans seeking information about educational benefits and community resources?
10. How many gender inclusive bathrooms does WSUTC have and where are they?
11. What WSUTC program provides faculty, staff and students the opportunity to strive for balance and wellness?
12. The goal of what program is to ensure students have what they need to be successful in and outside of the classroom?
13. What is the CRCI? What is the website for Tri-Cities specific campus resources? Name three resources for your community.