Senior Living is a growing, dynamic industry where residents 55+ live in independent, assisted living, or memory care communities. This model promotes active, social interaction among residents and their families in a safe, caring environment. Managers and professional staff strive to enhance the quality of residents' lives on a daily basis.

NEW! Senior Living Management Major

THIS DEGREE WILL

- Prepare you for managerial positions in a nearly recession-proof industry
- Position you in a growing industry as the Baby Boomers move in
- Provide sound business fundamentals, with a focus on hospitality operations
- Promote a very rewarding work-life balance

Granger Cobb Institute for Senior Living

Washington State University