

Taking Notes: Typing vs. Handwriting

Pros

- Can type faster than you can write
- More organized
- Notes are easy to email, re-write, or edit
- Can copy and paste
- Can be more effective for Kinesthetic learners

Cons

- Can be a distraction
- Tempting to take notes verbatim, which is not effective
- Technical difficulties

Pros

- Improves retention
- Less likely to take notes verbatim
- Can make drawings

Cons

- Process is slower and causes hand cramping
- Bad handwriting can make notes illegible
- Can get distracted if you like to doodle
