WANT TO SING AT WSU?

You do not need to be a music major to participate in any of the music ensembles at WSU. Auditions are held in the fall on Thursday, Friday and Sunday before classes begin.

To participate next semester, no audition is required for University Singers. Auditions for the spring opera/musical theatre production will be held during Closed Week in December. For more information about any of the ensembles or to inquire about potential openings/auditions for the spring semester in Concert Choir, contact either Dr. Dean Luethi or the appropriate ensemble director.
