MUSIC at WSU

Established in 1901, the WSU School of Music has long been recognized for excellence in undergraduate and graduate education. Students study with an internationally recognized faculty and have access to state-of-the-art facilities.

The School of Music offers a master of arts in music, bachelor of music degrees in music education, performance, composition, and performance with an emphasis in jazz, a bachelor of arts in music, a music minor, music technology minor, and jazz minor. WSU ensembles have performed around the world and are regularly invited to perform at prestigious concert venues and conferences across the country.

The School of Music is dedicated to educating the next generation of performers, educators and composers. Graduates of the School of Music are teaching, performing, touring and recording worldwide.

The School is proud of its near 100% placement rate for recent graduates in music education. Many WSU alums hold teaching positions in universities and schools around the country.

JAZZ at WSU

Washington State University was described by Jazziz magazine as one of the “best educational institutions for jazz.” Ensembles and individuals have received awards from Downbeat magazine and top honors at major festivals. WSU groups regularly present invited performances at prestigious conferences. Additionally they tour, record, and perform with distinguished guest artists.

Students in the Jazz Studies Program work with an internationally recognized faculty and have the opportunity to perform in a variety of award-winning ensembles including jazz big bands and combos. Additionally, classes are offered in improvisation, jazz theory, jazz composition and arranging, and jazz history. Degrees offered include a master of arts with a jazz option, a bachelor of music in performance with an emphasis in jazz, and a jazz minor.

Washington State University graduates are performing, recording and touring worldwide. Many WSU graduates have accepted prestigious positions at universities, colleges and leading public school programs.

The Jazz Studies faculty includes Coordinator of Jazz Studies, Gregory Yasinitsky, big bands, composition, arranging; Horace Alexander Young, saxophone; Darryl Singleton, jazz percussion, David Turnbull, trumpet; César Haas, guitar; Jake Svendsen, keyboards and combos; David Bjur, jazz bass and recording; Sarah Miller, trombone; A.J. Miller, low brass; and Melissa Parkhurst, ethnomusicology.
