I would like to thank everyone who has helped me get to where I am today. There are so many people who have helped me. Without them, this recital would not have been possible. Thank you to Dr. Tegart for all of your encouragement and support. You have pushed me to expand my repertoire in ways that I would never have imagined. Thank you to Dr. Roh for all all of your hard work. You made rehearsals both productive and enjoyable. Thank you to Dr. Blasco and Maynard Siev for helping me figure out the technology for my recital. Thank you to Dr. Leachman for helping me see how connected music is to engineering. Thank you to my parents for encouraging me so much. You have shaped my love of music more than you know. Thank you to all of my peers who have been there when I needed feedback. Thank you to my friends and family who have helped me throughout college. Thank you to all of my music teachers, both past and present, you have all helped shape me as a musician. Most of all, thank you to everyone who has listened to me perform. The support that you have all given means the world to me. Thank you.
