What is Allegro?

Allegro is an umbrella Registered Student Organization that represents all music student organizations at Washington State University. We aim to excite and inspire all students on the WSU campus with and through music. By partnering with student organizations, we provide funding to bring world-renowned guest artists to perform and work one-on-one with WSU students. In addition, Allegro offers travel scholarships to exceptional students and organizations traveling to competitions, festivals, conferences, and other music-related activities. Allegro receives generous funding from the Associated Students of Washington State University. All RSOs are welcome to apply for Allegro funding. Applications are available in the Kimbrough Music Building office.

Biography of Artist

REVERSO's members are...

RYAN KEBERLE, one of New York's busiest trombonists. He leads his own big band, All Ears Orchestra, along with the innovative small ensembles Catharsis, Reverso and Collective Do Brasil. He is a featured soloist with the Maria Schneider Orchestra and Darcy James Argue's Secret Society. Keberle is the Director of Jazz and Brass Studies at CUNY's Hunter College in Manhattan.

FRANK WEST resides in Paris, where he splits his activities between pianist, producer, composer, and arranger. Several of his albums have been awarded the French "Victoires du Jazz", and he has won grants from the French-American Jazz Exchange. He has worked with Dave Douglas, Mark Turner, Larry Grenadier, Clarence Penn, and Gretchen Parlato.

VINCENT COURTOIS is one of France's finest jazz cellists. He has collaborated with several of France's finest jazz musicians, including Michel Petrucciani, Martial Solal, Louis Sclavis, Marc Ducret, Dominique Pifarély, and Yves Robert. REVERSO's "Harmonic Alchemy" includes his first compositions for the group.

Program

Selections to be announced from stage.

Music performed comes from their new album, Harmonic Alchemy, music inspired by Gabriel Faure.
