

Welcome!
Wednesday, October 4
10:00 am – 5:00 pm

Agenda

We are dispersed throughout the state at these seven locations:

- Everett
- Pullman
- Puyallup
- Spokane
- Prosser
- Vancouver
- Wenatchee

10:00 Conference starts

Setting the Stage for Washington Resiliency

Help us create a Washington which is able to navigate the unpredictable and pivot the unexpected with a qualified, adaptable workforce; strong stewardship of natural resources; unparalleled access to healthy food; and thriving communities, families, and individuals.

We hope you learn to strengthen the work you are already doing and expand your knowledge. Our goal is to give you interesting, inspiring information from keynote speakers via technology, with locally facilitated discussions about how it might be useful to your program or community.

Morning session begins
10:00 – 10:05	Webinar broadcast begins: Mike Gaffney, Statewide Welcome Statewide Welcome, Opening Remarks
10:05 – 10:30	Wendy Powers, Cashup Davis Family Endowed Dean of CAHNRS Overview of CAHNRS Resilient Washington
10:30 – 11:00	Vicki McCracken, Associate Dean and Director of Extension Building and Funding a Resilient and Inclusive Extension

11:00 – 11:10 Break

The Community Capitals Framework

This presentation will focus on the Community Capitals Framework (CCF), which is a useful tool for analyzing community strength and strategically engaging to help build community resilience.

Morning Session 1:
11:10 – 12:00	Mary Emery, Director, Rural Prosperity Nebraska

- 12:00 – 1:00 Lunch and Introductions (name, title, location and the Community Capital that resonated)
- 1:00 – 1:45 Facilitated discussion with your regional peers.
- 1:45 – 2:00 Report out from each site.
- 2:00 – 2:10 Break

Resilient Community Health

Building on our 2020 Extension meeting to explore Health as a component of resilience within the structure of CCF.

Afternoon Session 2: Panel Presentation
2:10 – 3:00	Elizabeth Weybright, Associate Professor, WSU Human Development Nate Weed, Chief of Resilience, Chief of Resilience, Department of Health Amy Meredith, Speech and Hearing Sciences, WSU Health Sciences

- 3:00 – 3:45 Facilitated discussion with your regional peers.
- 3:45 – 4:00 Report out from each site.
- 4:00 Wednesday Session Ends – Safe Travels Home

Thursday, October 5
10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Agenda

10:00 Conference starts – welcome back!

Visioning for a Greener Future: Climate Resiliency

In this session you will participate in activities around what makes a healthy community, some climate disruptors that impacts a healthy community and walk through current and potential opportunities to address climate change.

Morning session; Part 1
10:00 – 10:55	Kristine Perry, Interim Director Clark County Extension Introduction and Components of a Healthy Community Activity
10:55 – 11:40	Patricia Townsend, Associate Professor and Urban Natural Resource Specialist Climate Primer 101 and Integrating climate forward programming
11:40 – 12:00	Reflection and closing

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch (no presentations or activities – networking time!)

What is your Public Value and how does it connect with the CAHNRS resiliency model?

This session will be foundational to the upcoming series of Program Planning and Evaluation workshops. Future sessions will include Conducting a Needs Assessment, Practical Methods to Measuring Outcomes and Strong Impact Writing.

Afternoon session, Part 1
1:00 – 1:20	Katherine Webb-Martinez, Director, Program Planning and Evaluation, UC Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension’s Public Value Framework <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presentation and table share discussions
1:20 – 2:20	Connecting Your Work to Public Value <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presentation, outputs vs outcomes activity and grading impact statements activity

2:20 – 2:30 Break

2:30 – 3:00 How Your Work & Colleagues’ Efforts Connect to the Resiliency Initiative, 4 Corners Activity

3:00 – 3:30 Reflection

3:30 - 3:45 Wrap up and next steps: a brief discussion that includes reactions/reflections about the day.

Afternoon session, Part 1
3:45 – 4:00	Vicki McCracken - Conference Closing Remarks

4:00 Thursday Ends – Safe Travels Home.