

5th ANNUAL
EVERGREEN JUNIOR DAIRY SHOW
4-H and FFA
Schedule and Rules
APRIL 26-27, 2019

Sponsor: The Evergreen Junior Dairy Show Association

Purpose: To promote and educate the public in the dairy industry.
To sponsor an Annual Spring Dairy Show for all bona fide 4-H and FFA members.

Eligibility: This show is open to all 4-H and FFA Dairy members. Animals shown must be regular projects with ownership or lease agreement established by March 18, 2019.

Primary: PRIMARY-AGE YOUTH ARE NOT ALLOWED TO SHOW DAIRY ANIMALS IN 4-H SPONSORED EVENTS, BUT THEY CAN ENTER A POSTER, EDUCATIONAL DISPLAY OR DEMONSTRATION. Each primary exhibitor pays $5 which qualifies them for a sweatshirt as a prize.

Entries: Postmarked by March 18th to: Cathy Boisseranc, 9910 198th St. SE, Snohomish, WA 98296
Only two entries may be made by an exhibitor in any class. All entries must include a copy of each animal's current & signed 4-H identification certificate or FFA Project statement signed by the FFA Advisor. Any change in an animal being shown after check in must be approved by the EJDS committee.

NON-REFUNDABLE PER ANIMAL FEES ARE REQUIRED WITH EACH ENTRY – $5 IF POSTMARKED BY March 19th, $10 IF POSTMARKED AFTER March 18th.

Exhibitors must supply their own feed (grain, hay, etc.), feeding and clean-up equipment. (Identify your equipment.) Bedding will be provided – to be shared by all, so be respectful.

All animals must be on the grounds BEFORE 7:00 p.m. Friday, April 26th (Emergencies considered and will require extra-charge veterinary service arranged and coordinated through Show Management).
Cattle MUST BE PRE-CLIPPED (head, legs, body) – minor topline clipping may be done in a designated area.

VET INSPECTION: Cattle must remain in cattle transports until 5:00 p.m. Vets will be on duty from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. on Friday, April 26th ONLY, and will give a mandatory visual inspection of all animals. No animals with warts, ringworm or infectious diseases will be permitted to stay on grounds. (All decisions on animal health are the final responsibility of the inspecting veterinarian). Animals will not be allowed to enter the barn until after a vet check. All cattle over 12 months of age must be Bangs vaccinated. No horns will be allowed except on calves born after December 1, 2018.

Displays and Posters: (Due in by 8:00 p.m. on 26th) Prizes will be awarded to the three best displays and posters in each division. Displays must be dated as 2019 originals. Awards will be based on creativity and quality of display. Follow the regular 4-H guidelines for creating and sizing displays. For more info: <http://extension.wsu.edu/4h/dairy-endowment-fund/program-activities/evergreen-junior-dairy-show>. Label each display with name, grade, and date on the back – no awards given if these are not listed. References should also be listed.

Demonstrations: Prizes/Ribbons will be awarded to winning participants who prepare and present a unique 5-minute demonstration with relevancy to the dairy industry or your dairy project. Demonstrations will be given from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Prizes: (FIT & SHOW) Merchandise prizes will be awarded to eligible exhibitors in Fitting and Showing based on their placing within their class (high placing, higher value prize). (TYPE) All eligible exhibitors in type classes will be awarded the same prize or prizes of similar value. Awards will be given for first place in Fitting and Showing classes and the Champion animal of each major breed (A, B, G, H, J, M).

No contestant may win more than two prizes showing cattle. ALL AWARDS ARE FINAL – NO EXCHANGE OF PRIZES. Primary exhibitors entering a poster, educational display or demonstration will receive a sweatshirt as their prize.

Fitting and Showmanship: Member must show own project animal. Separate divisions as determined by age: Juniors, Intermediates, and Seniors (FFA and senior 4-H show together). Fitting and Showing will commence at 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning. All Fitting and Showing classes, will be arranged according to the member's age regardless of animal's age and breed. Appropriate attire (4-H and FFA) is required. Must show in Fitting and Showing and Type to receive a sweatshirt and other prizes.

Type Class Breed Champions: Breed Champion animals will be chosen. The top two blue ribbon animals from each lot will compete for championships. A Junior and Reserve Junior Champion will be selected from Classes 1-7 and a Senior and Reserve Senior Champion will be selected from Classes 8-11. Grand and Reserve Grand Champion will be selected from Junior, Reserve Junior, Senior and Reserve Senior champions. If competition and quality are lacking, awards may be withheld at the discretion of the judges.

Barn Herdsmanship: Clubs/chapters are expected to participate in herdsman'ship from 10:00 a.m. Saturday, until they leave the Fairgrounds. Emphasis will be on neatness, cleanliness and condition of the stalling area. Banners and stall decorations are encouraged.

Exhibitor Meals: Dinner and breakfast will be provided to exhibitors at no charge. Family and guests may purchase a meal for $5 each. Lunch on show day is on your own. The Purple Cow will be open to purchase lunch.
