

KATHERINE MERCK

Lunch Speaker - Saturday, October 12, 2019

A native of Spokane, Washington, Katherine Merck is an attorney with Lake City Law Group in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Katherine is actively involved in the sport of rodeo and founded the first comprehensive rodeo consulting business, Rodeo Advantage, following her extensive travels as Miss Rodeo America 2016. When time allows, she enjoys fly-fishing, skiing, and competing in the American Quarter Horse Association and National Reining Horse Association. She is a graduate of Gonzaga University School of Law and a former rugby player for the University of Notre Dame. Katherine believes it is her duty to actively serve in order to give back to her community and sits on the Miss Rodeo America National Advisory Council, Miss Rodeo Idaho Board of Directors, and Columbia River Circuit Finals Rodeo Committee.
