LIMITED RESUMPTION OF 4-H IN-PERSON ACTIVITIES
Announcement Revised May 5, 2021

On March 11, Governor Inslee announced that all counties would move to phase 3 on March 22. On April 12, the Governor moved Pierce, Cowlitz and Whitman counties back to phase 2. On May 4, the Governor announced a two-week pause on phases. Under the pause, every county will remain in its current phase. At the end of two weeks, each county will be re-evaluated. NOTE THAT CHANGES TO REQUIREMENTS MAY BECOME MORE OR LESS RESTRICTIVE, depending upon the course of the COVID-19 virus.

PLEASE WORK WITH YOUR LOCAL COUNTY EXTENSION 4-H OFFICE IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO HOLD A 4-H IN-PERSON MEETING, ACTIVITY OR EVENT. ALL NEW IN-PERSON PLANS MUST BE APPROVED BY YOUR LOCAL 4-H STAFF/FACULTY AND LOCAL COUNTY DIRECTOR.

We reference the Governor’s Agricultural Events COVID19 Requirements for agricultural and animal events and the Department of Health’s Youth Development guidance for other in-person 4-H activities. We are also following recommendations by WSU’s Department of Environmental Health and Safety.

If the 4-H Event IS NOT an agricultural event, WSU has expanded the group size from 5 (for phase 2) to 15 (for phase 3) youth participants plus at least two adults (Extension personnel and/or Certified 4-H Volunteers). If the event is anticipating larger numbers, please consider staggered participation or “shift” scheduling to stay within the limits. More information can be found on the 4-H In-Person Resources Page linked below.

If the event is an agricultural event, the 4-H Youth Development Program will be following the Governor’s COVID-19 Agricultural Events Guidance, linked below.

As always, all safety protocols must be followed and any activity that can be accomplished at a distance should be.

2021 4-H State Fair Update – Tom Gwin, 4-H State Fair Manager

With the possibility of the entire state moving into a full reopening on June 30, the Washington State 4-H Fair Board wanted to provide an update for this year’s fair.
The Washington State Fair is currently planning to open with a face-to-face fair this year. The dates are September 3-26, 2021. There may be some modifications to show schedules and activities.

The State 4-H Fair Board is currently planning for both a face-to-face fair and a virtual fair. A decision as to whether the fair is face-to-face, virtual format or a combination of both will be made after the proposed State of Washington reopening of June 30.

As some counties have already decided not to hold a face-to-face fair in 2021, we will be waiving the county qualifying requirement for all exhibits in 2021. It is still up to each county to determine who will represent their county at the state fair.

If we do have a face-to-face fair, we will continue with the allocation process for animals as we have in previous years. Again, the counties will each need to determine how their allocation is filled and by whom.

We hope to be able to provide answers to our 4-H exhibitors and their families as soon as we can once the final decision is made as to the format we will follow this year.

Project Supporting Rural Youth Experiencing Covid Stress Featured in WSU Insider Article

The article, by Lauren Paterson of CAHNRS, explores the partnership between WSU Extension’s Child and Family Research Unit (CAFRU) and Washington State 4-H to address Covid stress in rural youth.

A survey commissioned by the National 4-H Council found that 70% of youth in the U.S. are struggling with their mental health in the wake of COVID-19.

Rural areas in Washington often lack access to internet services, childcare, and medical services. The goal of the project is to support students in rural areas who have been isolated from their normal support system.

Kits with supplies like stress balls, fidgets, and noise cancelling headphones will be sent to 600 young people in rural Washington to use when they are stressed during remote learning. Along with the kits, 4-H county Extension staff are being trained on how stress and trauma disrupt learning, and how to promote emotion regulation at home.

REMINDER! Play It Safe Around Poultry!

There is an ongoing multi-state salmonella outbreak associated with backyard chickens. The story link is below, along with extracted CDC advice about how to stay healthy around chickens. ONLY KISS CHICKENS ON THEIR LIPS!

Susan Kerr, DVM, PhD
WA State Dept. of Ag Educational Outreach Specialist

The CDC has this advice for backyard flock owners:

- Always wash your hands with soap and water right after touching backyard poultry or anything in the area where they live and roam.
- Use hand sanitizer if soap and water are not available.
- Don’t let backyard poultry inside the house, especially in areas where food or drink is prepared, served or stored. Keep flock supplies outside the house.
• Set aside a pair of shoes to wear while taking care of poultry and keep those shoes outside of the house.
• Children younger than 5, adults over 65 and people with weakened immune systems shouldn't handle or touch chicks, ducklings or other poultry.
• Don't eat or drink where poultry live or roam.
• Don’t kiss backyard poultry or snuggle them and then touch your face or mouth.
• Stay outdoors when cleaning any equipment or materials used to raise or care for poultry, such as cages, or feed or water containers.

Here’s how to handle eggs safely:

• Collect eggs often, don’t let them sit the nest as they can become dirty or break.
• Throw away cracked eggs. Germs on the shell can more easily enter the egg though a cracked shell.
• Rub off dirt on eggs with fine sandpaper, a brush or a cloth. Don’t wash them because colder water can pull germs into the egg.
• Refrigerate eggs to keep them fresh and slow the growth of germs.
• Cook eggs until both the yolk and white are firm. Cook egg dishes to an internal temperature of 160 degrees to kill all germs.

Looking Back….
…Washington State 4-H Memories
This is a picture of the first home economics club in the state, and debatably the first 4-H club in the state (both this one and a Spokane club started in 1914). George Nelson, also shown in this picture, was the first Extension agent in the state, and likely the first west of the Mississippi. He arrived here in 1912. He attended a conference in Washington DC about steam canning and brought the information back to Wahkiakum County to share. He worked with the Seal River school teacher to start the club, organizing fundraisers for the equipment and supplies they needed. The girls took their canned goods to the Wahkiakum County fair by skiff that year.

Thanks to Carrie Backman and Jennifer Leach for passing this along!

Third Annual True Leaders In Equity Institute Application Period Open Now

From September 10-12 and on October 9, 2021 the True Leaders in Equity Institute will prepare up to 20 teams to be change agents within the Cooperative Extension System as we work to create more welcoming and inclusive environments. This training and leadership opportunity challenges participants to work together to ideate and champion equity-related projects that will grow 4-H in their communities.

At the Institute, teams will:

- Gain a deeper understanding of key principles and concepts related to equity and inclusion.
- Identify a particular equity indicator and/or issue to focus on for the next year.
- Develop their skills and competencies in equity leadership and make connections to people, organizations and tools that can be helpful for their projects.
• Create an overall framework for their project for the next year and a specific 90-day action plan to implement when they return home.

The 2021 True Leaders in Equity application is open now through June 30, 2021.

If you have questions, you may download Frequently Asked Questions or email Hayat Essa at HEssa@fourhcouncil.edu.

Highly Pathogenetic Avian Influenza (HPAI) Info Available for Poultry Project Youth

Highly pathogenic avian influenza is very active right now around the globe. Outbreaks are presently occurring in North Korea, China, Netherlands, Sweden, Spain, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Iran, Poland, Norway, France, and Ukraine.

Wild waterfowl are one of the main ways the virus moves around. A major migratory flight path for wild waterfowl includes Washington State; many waterfowl species (swans, ducks, geese) overwinter in the state as well. These birds can carry the avian influenza virus and spread it to chickens, in which it is much more deadly. Please refresh your knowledge of the biosecurity practices recommended to keep your birds safe and take these actions every day!

Here are some good resources:

More Information on HPAI:

Washington State Veterinarian News: Batten Down the Hatches Against Avian Influenza

Outbreaks of highly pathogenic avian influenza are happening in several countries around the globe now. Please share this important info with 4-H members, commercial poultry owners, and any other stakeholders who would be affected by an outbreak in the U.S. We do NOT want this disease to get a foothold here! Thanks.

Plea for 4-H Horse Project Youth to Vaccinate for Equine Influenza

Dr. Susan Kerr, WSDA Education and Outreach Coordinator

4-H horse project youth, your horse depends on YOU to keep him/her safe and healthy!

There were 33 confirmed cases of equine influenza in Washington State in 2020. There were an additional 29 suspected cases, and 25 more horses were exposed to the virus by infected horses. These cases were distributed throughout the state. Fortunately, none of these horses died, which is typical for this disease.

Part of influenza treatment involves strict rest, and some horses do not return to normal for six months! Can you imagine not being able to ride or exercise your sick horse for weeks or months? Horses infected with the influenza virus can develop secondary pneumonia, which can be much more serious and require antibiotic treatment.

If your horse is at risk of catching influenza from other horses, why not prevent this disease and all its complications by vaccinating him/her? The American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP) recommends horses at risk be vaccinated for influenza every six months.

Is your horse at risk of influenza? YES if he/she has contact with other horses “outside its bubble” at shows, trail rides, schooling, etc. Also YES if you keep your horse at a stable where other horses are coming and going and mixing with other horses. Even if your horse doesn’t go anywhere, another horse can bring the virus to him/her.

If your horse stays at your home barn with a steady “bubble” of barn mates and doesn’t have direct or indirect contact with other horses, he/she is at minimal risk of influenza.

A very good article with more details about equine influenza is available at https://www.equinediseasecc.org/disease-information.
For more information about equine vaccinations, see the AAEP's recommendations at https://aaep.org/horse-owners/owner-guidelines/owner-vaccination-guidelines or speak with your veterinarian.

The foundation of animal welfare is preventing animal illness, pain, and suffering. Vaccinating against diseases of concern is a very simple and effective way to do this.
