Garden (Class 160) Exhibits – will be accepted as scheduled on Sept 3-26, or on any day you will be participating in other fair activities.

Educational Displays (Class 70) – will be accepted on Aug 30-31. If animal educational displays are entered prior to the animal show, they will be stored in the Exhibit Building. Exhibitors may pick them up when they arrive with their animals and display them in the appropriate barns.

Mail In Entries – will be accepted until late entry day (Sept 21). If received after Aug 31, the items will be stored and judged as judges are available. Exhibits will be put on display after judging.

Fleece/Fiber (Classes 310-313) Exhibits – may be entered on Aug 30-31 with the still life exhibits in the 4-H Display Building, or on Sept 17, from 10 am to 1 pm in the Llama Display Area of Barn M. Those items entered pre-fair will be stored until Sept 17.

EQUINE DUE/RELEASE

No equine will be admitted to barns until vet checked. If your animal doesn't pass vet check, you will need to take it home immediately. There are no facilities to hold rejected animals. Equine should arrive so vet check can be completed and animals stalled during the hours given below for each section. No vets are scheduled after check-in time.

All equine and tack must be out of the barns, and stalls completely cleaned immediately following barn release announcement, to allow time to prepare the barns for the next section. Animals and tack must be removed immediately when released. You are encouraged to remove excess tack and equipment early on release day; you can drive onto the fairgrounds until 8:45 am for this purpose.
