PNW 4-H HORSE JUDGES' SCHOOL & VOLUNTEER TRAINING

All current and prospective 4-H horse judges are invited. A really great learning opportunity for volunteers too!

This is the required school for new and ongoing 4-H Horse judges in the PNW region. Schedule is full and will include demonstration riders, mock judging opportunities, question and answer opportunities in nearly all 4-H Horse Disciplines and Events. Lunch on Friday & Saturday and Dinner on Friday included. If you cannot attend the event, but would like to purchase the materials, contact Stephanie Roeter for information on how to make that happen.

You may register online or by U.S. Mail, here is the online link:

Answers to: FAQ

This is the training current judges must attend at every other opportunity to remain on the PNW 4-H Horse Judges' List.

This is the training that new and/or apprentice judges must attend in order to get on the PNW 4-H Horse Judges' List.

This is a unique and quality opportunity for volunteers, especially those in leadership and/or superintendent roles.

Of course, 4-H staff are also welcome and will find this a great look into the 4-H Horse Program.

Come prepared to learn, take notes, and spend long days. Mornings and evenings may be colder in the fall (and maybe not) one never knows for sure.

The training will be indoors.

Know what publications you have and what year they were published. PNW 4-H publications will be available to update your documents or to pick up at no cost if you don't have current editions.

Publications & handouts will be supplied on a USB drive for your convenience.

A new notebook will be handed out, but will not include every publication and handout; it will include specifically what you will need at the training.

Seating at the arena will be bleachers, so if you want a specific type of chair, bring it with you.

One of our own judges, Cassi Soule' will be giving our keynote address. Guaranteed to share every emotion and have a great reminder of the importance of 4-H and how we each contribute and impact childrens' lives.
