Write a script to be read by the show commentator during the stage presentation of your Creative Consumers of Fashion outfit. Describe fashion details of your outfit, tell why you selected your accessories, and relate what factors you considered in your decision to buy this particular style of garment. Use information from your data sheet to help you write the script. Use a maximum of 200 words. The commentary must be typed. For hints on preparing a commentary, refer to EM4224E, Suggestions for Writing 4-H Style Revue Commentary. To assist the commentator's accuracy when reading your script, please type using larger font if possible. Please don't use all capital letters.

Federal regulations require manufacturers to attach permanent labels to garments with information about fiber content, care, etc. Write below the information you are able to collect from the garment labels included in your outfit.

To what type of activity or event do you plan to wear this outfit?
What makes this outfit a good choice for the event? $\qquad$

Can you make small changes to your outfit to make it appropriate for other occasions? $\qquad$
If yes, describe a change you might make. $\qquad$

If you don't feel there are changes to be made to make the outfit "work" for other occasions, explain why:

Make an itemized list of the costs associated with the purchase of this outfit. Include the price of all individual garments, any supplies used to remodel a garment, special underwear required, accessories, and shoes. Indicate if the items were purchased on sale at a department or specialty store, or at a second hand or thrift store or garage sale. Add together to find the total cost of your outfit. If there are items you already had in your wardrobe circle them and estimate their current value.
