

Ferry County

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

4-H is a youth development program that engages young people from ages 5 to 18 in a broad array of experiences and learning opportunities. It is the youth outreach program for the US Land Grant Universities, Cooperative Extension, and the National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA). 4-H emphasizes youth becoming engaged, well informed citizens. 4-H emphasizes generosity, citizenship and mastery and independence related to personal behaviors and to their chosen 4-H projects.

The WSU Ferry County Extension 4-H Program constantly seeks qualified and enthusiastic volunteers to work with our clubs and programs in Ferry County.

Every prospective volunteer submits an application, is background checked, completes a training and educational program on 4-H. Each applicant is asked to provide two letters of recommendation as part of their application to become a WSU Ferry County 4-H Volunteer. We appreciate you completing this review of the applicant.
