

Non-Discrimination Statement

All printed material distributed by WSU Extension must contain a statement of non-discrimination which notifies the reader that programs are available to all persons without regard to race, sex, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin; physical, mental or sensory disability; marital status, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam-era disabled veteran.

For long-lived publication such as bulletins and newsletters where space is not extremely limited, use this statement:

Extension programs and policies are consistent with federal and state laws and regulations on nondiscrimination regarding race, sex, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin; physical, mental or sensory disability; marital status, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam-era or disabled veteran. Evidence of noncompliance may be reported through your local Extension office.

We allow a shorter version to be used only where space is limited or materials are short-lived, such as letters and news releases:

Extension programs and employment are available to all without discrimination. Evidence of noncompliance may be reported through your local Extension office.
