

Snohomish County Composters accepting Food and Yard Waste:

Together these companies have donated 4500 tons of compost for use in the WSU On-Farm Compost Trials!

Cedar Grove Compost	Lenz Enterprises Compost	Bailey Compost
Cedar Grove Compost or Organic Cedar Grove Compost. Off-season (late summer/early fall) deliveries for farmers recommended for lower cost. All product double screened.	GreenBlenz Compost and GreenBlenz Organic Compost Compost double screened, but available single screened for lower cost. Lower prices for 30 cu yd + deliveries for farmers.	Limited trucking available, but Don offers special deals to fellow farmers especially those who can self-haul (single screened, not organic), for delivery-Snohomish area only. Low prices for compost picked up! (No registered organic compost available).
Casey Funke, 206-491-5427, ag@cgcompost.com	Taylor Brown, 360.629.2933 - ext. 3, taylor@lenz-enterprises.com	Don and Barb Bailey, 360-568-8826, baileycompost@gmail.com
http://cedar-grove.com/commercial/agriculture/	http://www.greenblenz.com/compost/	http://www.baileycompost.com/

TARP IT!

If compost is purchased in late summer or fall with plans to apply in the following spring, it is recommended to cover the product with a tarp over the rainy winter months. Off-season compost deliveries are recommended for reduced prices and timely delivery of product.