

HOW TO FILL OUT YOUR 4-H STILL LIFE & ANIMAL ENTRY FORM

Jane Doe, a Junior, is a 4-H'er who turned 10 by October 1, 2021. Jane enrolled in rabbit and horse projects this year. Jane did a Demonstration in front of judges before the Fair at a contest. She will enter that plus her placing so that Premium Points are recorded for it. She also qualified and wants to demonstrate again at the Fair. She will enter Dept. 1, Class B for a possible prize (but not for Premium Points). Jane has a completely original educational poster and will enter it in Department 4, Class B and Lot 1, since she is a Junior. Jane's Club (entered under the Leader's name) will enter a Booth, but Jane will not record this contest on her entry form. The Small Animal Round Robin Superintendent will enter Jane into the Round Robin, if she qualifies at the Fair. She has entered each Dept. in numerical order to make recording easier. Jane uses the Animal & Still Life Entry Form which look like this:

DEPT	CLASS	LOT	DESCRIPTION	AWARD
1	A	1	Judged Demo at Contest	Blue
1	B	1	Demonstration at Fair
4	B	1	Original Poster

Jane wants to show and enter her rabbit at the fair, too. The Premium Book says Rabbits are in Dept. 28. Jane knows that she must enter judging for small animals and must do showmanship with her rabbit. These are classes A and B respectively. For showmanship, she is the one being judged, so the lot number refers to her (Lot 1 Jr). The rabbit will enter a "Type Class." The rabbit is a buck under 9 lbs. and older than 6 months old. The rabbit belongs in Class C (for light breeds) and Lot 3 (the rabbit is old enough to be called a "Senior"). This is how Jane will continue her entries on the same form with her rabbit project:

DEPT	CLASS	LOT	DESCRIPTION	AWARD
28	A	1	Judging/Rabbit-Sm. Animal
28	B	1	Rabbit Showmanship-Jr.
28	C	3	Lt. Sr. Buck
39	A	1	Judging/Horse

Jane has a horse, and she wants to show at the Fair. Jane would like to participate in the judging class, so she will add this entry to the same form. She is now ready to send this form to the 4-H Extension Office. Jane wants to enter in horse classes and games now, so she will use the 4-H Horse Entry Form found in the Premium Book to enter her classes and send it to the Fair Office. She will use the Horse Schedule to help her sign up for the horse classes she is interested in and won't conflict with her other projects.

Note: These forms will be used for data entry, animal exhibit space, and to set up classes. The Superintendents will receive this information. Please be accurate and use the Premium Book Department, Class, and Lot listings. Please contact the 4-H Extension Office for Entry Forms, Schedules or with any questions at (360) 370-7662.

Please see the Entry Form for all deadlines. Thank you!
