New Leader Information

Will your club have a new leader this year or are you interested in starting your own club? If so, all new leaders need to attend an orientation meeting. There will be a New Leaders Training on Sat. Nov 5th from 9 am until 3 pm at the King County 4-H office. To RSVP for the training or for more information or to schedule a meeting, please call Nancy Baskett at 253 224-2884.

4-H Fall Leaders' Meeting

The King County 4-H Fall Leaders' Meeting will be Oct 5 at 7:00 pm. The location is tentatively set for Nelsen Middle School, 2403 Jones Ave. S, Renton, 98055. Regardless of location, the date is set so please reserve this date on your calendar. We request that the main club leader or a representative from your club attend this important meeting. Information about the new 4-H policies going into effect this year will be shared. Association officer elections for 2016-2018 will also be held. If your club is turning in record books for evaluation, they must be turned in no later than this meeting. At this meeting premium checks from the King County Fair will be disbursed as well as checks to the clubs/projects that worked in the 4-H food booth during the fair.

Teen Rally

This year's Teen Rally for Western Washington will be Oct 28-30 at Camp Casey in Coupeville WA. This is a leadership weekend for 4-H members in 7th grade and above. The cost for this event is $95.00. The King County 4-H Association has scholarships covering up to 75% of the registration costs available for this event. You must be enrolled in 4-H for the 2016-2017 year before attending and fill out a scholarship application before the event if interested. In order for King County to send a delegation we will need a chaperone. Please contact the Nancy Baskett if you are interested in attending this event as a member or a chaperone. For scholarship forms please email Dianne Heath at lighthousedh@comcast.net.

Teen Leaders' Of Tomorrow

Teen Leaders' of Tomorrow 4-H Club (TLOT) will meet Sept 26, 6:30 pm at the King 4-H Office. The teen leaders club is open to all youths 7th grade and above who would like to develop leadership skills and promote 4-H while having fun and making new friends.

Shooting Sport Trainings

Are you interested in adding a shooting sports project to your club or starting your own club? There are 2 archery leaders' trainings and a rifle/shotgun leaders training. Please email nbaskett@wsu.edu for more information.

Archery and/or rifle leaders training

Washington State 4-H Forum

King County 4-H Association encourages all our leaders and interested adults to attend this educational event. This year's Forum will be held October 21-23 in Pasco WA. There are various workshops offered on Friday and Saturday and state recognitions at the dinner on Friday as well as guest speakers at the meals offered during the event. More information and the registration form can be found at the following link:

<http://extension.wsu.edu/4h/for-volunteers/washington-state-4-h-forum/>

The association will reimburse up to 75% of the early bird registration for those interested in attending. Individuals must be registered for the 2016-2017 4-H year and must submit a copy of their registration form and payment as well as a scholarship form by Oct. 14th to be considered for reimbursement. If interested in more information on the scholarship form, please contact Dianne Heath at lighthousedh@comcast.net.

King County 4-H Association Meetings

All club leaders, project leaders, and interested 4-H adults are encouraged to attend the monthly meetings of the KC 4-H Association. The meetings are held on the 1st Wednesday of each month at 7:00 pm at the King County Extension Office, 1000 Oakesdale Ave SW Suite 150, Renton, WA 98057. Come find out what is happening with King County 4-H. Take part in discussions about association policies and hear about 4-H events happening around King County. Remember—4-H extends beyond the club level. There are great events happening that all 4-H members can attend and enjoy.
