WSU NEW VOLUNTEER APPLICATION FORM

● PART C ●

As a 4-H Volunteer, it is important that you understand what the WSU Asotin County Extension will provide and what WSU expects of you.

WSU Asotin County Extension will:

- partner with volunteers for effective youth development,
- provide the volunteer with orientation materials relating to policies, procedures, roles, and the organization,
- provide ongoing training,
- set the education tone and direction with the 4-H council and committees,
- make youth and leadership development available,
- implement affirmative action policies and help volunteers do the same,
- annually review a volunteer's need for resources and development.

As a 4-H Volunteer, I:

- will treat others with respect and dignity, while creating opportunities for positive growth and development;
- will conduct myself in a courteous, respectful manner, exhibit good sportsmanship, demonstrate reasonable conflict management skills and serve as a positive role model for youth;
- will seek to provide a safe environment for youth;
- will respect, follow, and enforce the policies and codes of conduct established by WSU Extension, state and county 4-H Programs;
- will NOT consume alcohol or use illegal substances while at 4-H programs;
- recognize that verbal or physical abuse, failure to comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination laws, or committing criminal acts may be grounds for dismissal as a volunteer;
- will follow the proper reporting procedures for accidents and/or suspected abuse or neglect;
- will handle animals and operate machinery, vehicles, and other equipment in a safe and responsible manner when working with youths in 4-H programs;
- will perform volunteer duties in responsible, timely and ethical manner;
- understand that, unless noted below, photos, video, or audio recordings made of me at 4-H events may be used by WSU Extension to promote the 4-H Youth Developmental program; Please contact me for specific permission.
- will handle fund raising and finances in an ethical manner and in accordance with 4-H policy;
- understand that if I involve non-enrolled volunteers as resources at any 4-H activity, they must be under the supervision of a enrolled 4-H leader, WSU Extension staff or faculty at all times.

I read this agreement, I understand the terms and expectations and acknowledge that I or WSU Extension may terminate this volunteer agreement at any time.

INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATIONS

Please list any Shooting Sports or Challenge certifications that you have and attach a copy of the certificate:

Instructor Certifications and Training Requirements

The Washington 4-H Shooting Sports Program requires the use of National or State Trained & 4-H Certified Instructors at the county level (in the appropriate discipline) to operate a live-fire range or to conduct any class in which firearms or archery equipment are handled. 4-H volunteers and faculty/staff who attend and become nationally certified in the shooting sports are expected to teach in their discipline at least once per year (twice is recommended).

In order to be certified as a 4-H Shooting Sports Instructor in any discipline (rifle, shotgun, pistol, muzzleloader, archery, and hunting) the following requirements must be met:

1. Instructors and Assistant Instructors above 4-H age must have been screened, trained, and appointed as a current 4-H Leader through a local county Extension office. Screening shall include: Washington State Patrol background check, criminal history disclosure, and character reference form.
2. The age requirements for shooting sports instructors, assistant instructors, and teen leaders is as follows:
 - a. Instructor—minimum 21 years old.
 - b. Assistant Instructor— minimum 18 years old; must have a minimum of one year as a 4-H member in shooting sports discipline, experience in the discipline per instructor's approval, or have attended a state training; can only instruct youth under the direct supervision of an instructor that is present during the instruction; may be in charge of a live range only under the direct supervision of an instructor.
 - c. Teen Leader—minimum 14 years old; per leader approval and only under direct supervision of an instructor that is present during the instruction. The teen leader is not to be in charge of a live fire range.
3. Successfully complete Instructor Training administered and sanctioned through the Washington State 4-H Office. A minimum of 11–15 hours in discipline instruction, use of the National 4-H Shooting Sports Curriculum, safety, risk management, teaching methods, and the 4-H program management will be taught at a State 4-H Sanctioned Instructor Training. National 4-H Trained and Certified Instructors are to do the instruction at the State Level Training Sessions. They can also conduct training sessions at the county level.
Instructors teaching the hunting curriculum with a focus on shooting activities must be dual certified in hunting and the shooting discipline on which they will focus (rifle, pistol, shotgun, archery, or muzzleloading).
4. County 4-H Shooting Sports Instructors must be trained and certified in the discipline (rifle, shotgun, pistol, muzzleloader, archery, and hunting) that they are teaching at the county level. State instructors must be trained and certified at a National 4-H Shooting Sports Training in the discipline (rifle, shotgun, pistol, muzzleloader, archery, and hunting) that they are teaching at the state or regional level and it is recommended that all instructors have a current First Aid and CPR Card.
5. As of October 1, 2005, all shooting sports instructors need to meet the training and age requirements as outlined in the Washington State 4-H Shooting Sports Plan.
