8. PREFAIR	Gwen reported it was the worst show ever managed due to shortage of volunteers, possibly due to the change of date from last weekend in June. There was dialogue regarding coaching from out of county participants and adult behavior not conducive to 4-H standards. Gwen mentioned that part of the behavior may have been because of simple mistakes that happened due to lack of volunteers. Denise and Peggy who were helping in the office had to leave for a brief time which impacted Gwen who was doing data entry of class lists. Gwen will be volunteering her judging services to the county this impacted to make amends for the errors. Suggestions are requested on how to increase club volunteering at prefair and anyone interested in helping run prefair next year.

A vet will be doing rounds twice a day; however, if there is a major health issue, the animal owner is instructed to call their vet as GH Vet Services are not equipped to handle horse injuries and illnesses.
	Cowboy Breakfast: The Cowboy Breakfast will be from 8:00 a.m. -11:00 a.m. on Sunday, conflicting with the state meeting and set up of the office for the gaming show. Volunteers are needed for both the gaming show (built into fair work schedule) and for the breakfast. Those clubs with non-equine members are encouraged to work the breakfast. Thank you!
