Energizing Activity:

A. Energizer this month was led by Tracie and Denise. It was a wishing wand and everyone told what their wish would be for 4-H or their Club.

B. Mary Volunteered to head up May's activity

Reports of Project Groups:

A. 4-H Horse Council - Hairy Horse shows are done. They had 45 riders and quite a few were new. Next clinic is last weekend in June. There were lots of new ideas at the last meeting including the possible use of green ribbons in tails of horses to show beginners so other youth could step in and help if rider needed some. Schedule is almost complete for fair.

Committee Reports, Committee Sign-up and Recruitment:

A. Committee Chairman Selection is still a work in progress and forms are being collected

4-H Youth Development Report:

A. Panhandle Board Re organization – Krag came and spoke on some changes that have taken place at Panhandle with the board. All the Bi-Laws are now updated. Tom moved to have Jeff Wetzel sit on the Panhandle board as our representative and Teena seconded. All were in favor. It will be wonderful to have open communication from the Panhandle Board now.

B. There is a 4-H Clothing and Textile training April 26, May 3rd and May 10th

C. WSU 100th anniversary is coming up! They will be doing community promotional activities along with sharing some of the projects that 4-H has with county commissioners

Current Activities:

A. Public Presentations are coming right up! They will be done at Del's during the clover campaign, April 26th. Times to be determined

B. Scholarship Applications dues 5/1

C. Mandatory Livestock meeting May 7th at 6:30pm at Elma High School

D. Next Bingo date was set for October 11th

E. 4-H Achievement program for the year will be November 9th

Unfinished Business:

A. Central County Representative is still open

B. No 2014 Ambassador Club Report. We hope to have this at next meeting.

C. Food booth future is still in the air. Next meeting we will have some hard numbers and a future of the food booth decision will be made.

D. List of current officers and terms of their office will be presented at future meeting.
