

Grays Harbor 4-H Horse Council
May 6, 2019
Meeting Minutes

Present: Brian Missildine-President, FarraLee Walseth-Burnett & Andrea Conley (Country Pride), Denise Schupbach (Best of Times via Zoom), Peggy Williamson (Wild at Heart), Rachel Tuttle (Phantom Riders), Jane Hewitt (Thundering Hooves) and Gwen Carrell (Live to Lope)

I. CALL TO ORDER:

The meeting was called to order by Brian Missildine, President.

Pledge of the Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge were recited by those present.

II. APPROVAL OF PREVIOUS MINUTES:

Information was not available due to late login by secretary.

TREASURER'S REPORT:

FarraLee reported the current checking balance of $8,002.84.

III. EXTENSION REPORT:

- Registration for summer camp is underway with 50 or more registrations received thus far. A waiting list has been started. Two additional lifeguards and chaperones will be hired. They will be using newly certified archery instructors.
- There are equine books available for people to use.
- There are workshops that will happening soon.

IV. GENERAL COUNCIL REPORT:

No one present has attended the general council meeting so no report was provided.

V. FUN ACTIVITY:

No activity this month.

VI. HORSE SHOWS/CLINICS:

1. Upcoming clinic is Spring Youth Fair.

2. Hairy Horse Show:
 - a. There was a question regarding the order of gaming events.
 - b. A gaming judge is needed.
 - c. A club for poop scooping is needed.
 - d. The mounting block is here.
3. It was agreed to not hold a July 11 clinic.

VII. COUNTY FAIR:

- Brian spoke to Dan about using both the Ortquist and Lundgren barns. It was approved to proceed with the plan of using both as long as the front of the barns are used. It was also proposed that Barrel Blazers move to the front of the Ortquist Barn where Denim & Diamonds used to be.
- There was a discussion regarding judges. Heidi Masengale will judge gaming and performance. Denise was unsure if she would do groom squad and judging. Amanda Wilgenburg will judge dressage.

VIII. CLINIC OPPORTUNITIES:

Denise proposed four mid-week dates during June for the horse council to consider for evening clinics available to those participating in the Grays Harbor Fair. These dates and times are as follows:

4-H Horse Project Clinic Opportunities

6-8:30 pm at the Grays Harbor County Fairgrounds in Elma
 $5/session or $20 for the 4-part series (checks payable to GH 4-H Horse Council)

Tuesday, June 11th (Performance)

Showmanship
 Stockseat

Thursday, June 13th (Gaming)

Showmanship
 Laterals & Bending

Tuesday, June 18th (Gaming)

Showmanship
 Stopping & Roll-backs
 International Flags
 Key Race

Thursday, June 20th (Performance)

Showmanship

Huntseat

Saddleseat

IX. NEW BUSINESS:

1. There was a question who has the arena during the Sunday after fair, Denise will check.
2. The upcoming June meeting is the mandatory meeting. There was a discussion of materials needed.
3. Denise made a request that record books and entry forms be submitted to the 4-H office no later than 5:00 p.m. on July 15. A motion was made by Peggy to approve the request, it was seconded by Rachel and approved unanimously.
4. Gwen will do the data entry for exhibitor entry cards for fair.

X. ADJOURN:

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:43 p.m.