

WELCOME TO THE ISLAND COUNTY WSU SHORE STEWARDS!

To become a Shore Steward, simply fill in the information below! You will receive our book "GUIDE FOR SHORELINE LIVING" and "Shoreline Living" DVD. We will send you our occasional newsletter as a link on the website and contact you about events and programs important to shoreline property owners and those who have community shoreline access. We value your privacy; your information is kept confidential and is never used for other purposes. There are no fees or dues, no meetings or other time commitments. Shore Stewards is a free educational program supported by grants and donations.

CONTACT INFORMATION (please print legibly)

Name(s): _____

Mailing Address: _____

City: _____ State/Zip Code: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Shoreline address (if different from above): _____

I live at my shoreline property ____ year-round, or ____ months per year.

Is your property developed? ____yes ____no Today's Date: ____/____/____

I live on the marine shoreline ____ I live along a stream or creek ____ OR,

I live in a community association with beach access, or community boat ramp: _____

I do not live along the shoreline, but wish to be a good steward of our island _____

YES, I would like to receive the free 12" x 18" metal Shore Stewards sign, and can pick it up at the WSU Extension office in Coupeville or on Camano Island _____

Mail the completed application to the address below, scan and email as an attachment, or drop it off in person at:

Kristine Vannoy, WSU Extension
Shore Stewards Coordinator, Island County
121 N. East Camano Drive
Camano Island, WA 98282

kristine.vannoy@wsu.edu
(360) 639-4608

Shore Stewards is a program of Washington State University Extension.

Extension programs and policies are consistent with federal and state laws and regulations on nondiscrimination regarding race, sex, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin; physical, mental or sensory disability; marital status, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam-era or disabled veteran. Evidence of noncompliance may be reported through your local Extension office.