

Master Gardener Program

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

2018 Thursday “Brown Bag” Series

Held at the Clallam County Courthouse Commissioner’s Room at 12pm
(223 East Fourth Street, Port Angeles)

Date	Lecture Subject	Presenter
January 25	Blueberries: Pruning for Productivity	Jeanette Stehr-Green, Master Gardener
February 8	Pruning Year Around	Keith Dekker, Master Gardener
February 22	Getting Started with Mason Bees: Master Pollinator for your Fruit Trees	Bev Hetrick, Master Gardener
March 8	Growing Salsa	Elaine Webber, Master Gardener
March 22	Tropical Fruits that Can Be Grown in our Climate	Bev Morrow, Master Gardener
April 12	Honeybees: History and Future	Meg Depew, Local Business Owner
April 26	The Wonderful World of Kale	Bob Cain, Master Gardener
May 10	Growing Rhododendrons	Rosalie Preble, Master Gardener
May 24	Roses	Elaine Webber, Master Gardener
June 14	Installing Drip Irrigation in a Day	Susan Kalmar, Master Gardener
June 28	Nematodes: The Good and the Evil	Muriel Nesbitt, Master Gardener
July 12	Using Fertilizers in Your Garden	Muriel Nesbitt, Master Gardener
July 26	Brambling Along: Growing Raspberries and Blackberries	Jeanette Stehr-Green, Master Gardener
August 9	Air Layering	Barbara Scott, Local Gardener
August 23	Growing Organic Garlic	Pam Larsen, Local Gardener
September 13	Your Yard is Wildlife Habitat	Anita McMillan, Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife
September 27	Lions and Tigers and Bears! Vertebrate Pests in the Garden	Jeanette Stehr-Green and Judy English, Master Gardeners
October 11	Pruning for the Dormant Season	Keith Dekker, Master Gardener
October 25	Alternatives to Lawns	Muriel Nesbitt, Master Gardener
November 8	Christmas Flowers: Holiday Gifts that Keep on Giving	Jeanette Stehr-Green, Master Gardener
December 13	Garden Calendar for the Coming Year	Amanda Rosenberg and Muriel Nesbitt, Master Gardeners