ARTICLE II

Structure

Section 1: Introduction

4-H is the largest youth development organization in the United States and has existed for over 100 years. The 4-H Club is a non-profit affiliate of the Washington State University (WSU) Extension 4-H Youth Development Program.

Section 2: Purpose

The 4-H Youth Development Program assists youth and volunteer staff, through informal education, to acquire knowledge, and develop life skills and values that enable them to become increasingly self-directing, productive, contributing citizens.

The purpose of the 4-H Club, in cooperation with Extension professionals, is to provide positive youth development opportunities to meet the needs of young people to experience belonging, mastery, independence, and generosity—the Essential Elements—and to foster educational opportunities tied to the land-grant university knowledge base. These opportunities for Washington state youth are provided regardless of race; sex/gender; sexual orientation; gender identity/expression; religion; age; color; creed; national or ethnic origin; physical, mental, or sensory disability, including disability requiring the use of a trained service animal; and/or genetic information in [REDACTED] County, Washington.

Section 3: Responsibility

The responsibility of the 4-H Club is to operate as a qualified non-profit entity, which does the following:

- A. Teaches and mentors youth in the principles of [the dairy industry/equine care and activities/ fill in the blank- list major club project areas].

- B. Plans, executes, and evaluates a well-balanced educational program for 4-H youth with both short- and term-goals.
- C. Promotes volunteer leadership development and empowers adult and teen volunteers in the 4-H Youth Development Program.
- D. Secures and manages sufficient resources to accomplish the purpose and mission of the 4-H Club.
- E. Serves as a link between the 4-H Youth Development Program and the county 4-H professional, Fair Board, youth serving groups, schools, community agencies, and the public.
- F. Develops and maintains a vibrant, active club membership in cooperation with the Extension professional(s).
- G. Publicizes the objectives and philosophy of the 4-H Youth Development Program and serves as an advocate for youth.
- H. Implements 4-H Youth Development Program policy, subject to review and approval by a WSU Extension 4-H professional.
- I. Complies with the Internal Revenue Services and Washington State regulations and policies to maintain exempt status as a non-profit charitable educational organization.

ARTICLE III Funding and Assets

Section 1: Fund Responsibility

The 4-H Club will be responsible for raising sufficient funds to support the educational purpose of the 4-H Club. The 4-H Club will also be responsible for managing available funds by:

- A. Preparing an annual budget
- B. Giving direction to acquiring private funds
- C. Approving all expenditures from the 4-H Club budget.

Section 2: Distribution of Funds

4-H Club property and funds are only to be used for the activities and programs of the 4-H Club. None of the funds or property the 4-H Club accrues are to benefit or be distributable to its members, leaders, officers, or other private persons. Only authorized and empowered individuals of the 4-H Club shall be allowed to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes provided in this Agreement.

Section 3: Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the activities of the 4-H Club shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the 4-H Club shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the 4-H Club shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a 4-H Club exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this 4-H Club shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this 4-H Club.

Section 4: Disposition of Assets in Event of Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the 4-H Club, assets shall be distributed to an exempt 501(c)(3) 4-H Affiliate organization with a charitable educational purpose. Unless WSU has notified the 4-H Club otherwise, the 4-H Council for [REDACTED] County, so long as it has active status as an exempt charitable educational organization pursuant to 501(c)(3), will receive the funds. If no such 4-H Council exists in [REDACTED] County, the Washington State 4-H Foundation provided it has active status as an exempt charitable educational organization under 501(c)(3), will receive the funds. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the 4-H Club is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV Membership

Section 1: Composition

The membership of the 4-H Club shall consist of local volunteer adult leaders and youth (5-19 years of age). Sponsors, and other community leaders, and school, church, and civic officials may serve in support roles to the 4-H Club. Adults should have interest in Extension education and youth, and should represent all geographic and economic groups. Membership of the 4-H Club shall be determined on a nondiscriminatory basis regardless of race; sex/gender; sexual orientation; gender identity/expression; religion; age; color; creed; national or ethnic origin; physical, mental, or sensory disability, including disability requiring the use of a trained service animal; and/or genetic information.

Section 2: Number

The size of the 4-H Club shall be determined by a consensus of the youth and adult leadership of the 4-H Club and based upon capacity of meeting space or availability of Certified Volunteers to ensure equal access. A waitlist should be created and followed when space becomes available.
