There will be a charge of $125 to help cover program costs. Limited partial scholarships are available.

Volunteer Agreement

The WSU Livestock Advisor program thrives with the contribution of folks giving volunteer hours back to our program. EVERY person taking our training needs to commit to sharing 50 hours of time in our program within the next TWO years. Ample opportunities will exist for each person to work with in their availability. Volunteering at fairs & educational events, in the office, helping with a farm tour, model project construction, teach a class, event support, endless opportunities are available. I also understand that to remain certified as a WSU Livestock Advisor beyond my first two years, I must donate 20 hours of volunteer service and 5 hours of advanced training per year to the WSU Livestock Advisor Volunteer Program.

By signing this agreement I commit to giving 50 hours of time back to the WSU Livestock Advisor program over the next 2 years.
