A curriculum for local food systems

"Risk Management on Your Farm"

Monday, December 18, 4:00-8:00 pm; Olympic College, Poulsbo

Operating a farm business is a complicated endeavor, and there are risks. Learn to identify, prioritize and mitigate areas of risk so you can focus on what you do best. We'll take a look at insuring your farm, understanding IRS and labor law, plus a quick tour of food safety requirements.

Fifth in a series of monthly , local food systems courses for new and beginning farmers and producers.
