Project Goal Instructions

Juniors: one goal

Intermediates: two goals

Seniors: three goals

Everyone should have at least one S.M.A.R.T. goal for the record book judging in August.

YOU WILL BE DOCKED POINTS IF YOU LEAVE ANY AREAS BLANK ON THE GOAL PAGE WHEN YOU SUBMIT YOUR RECORD BOOK FOR JUDGING. If you have not completed your goal, evaluate where you are prior to turning your record book in for the August judging. You can update the goal before year-end awards if the status of your goal is different on September 30.

See the Record Book Guide on the Kitsap County 4-H website for more information.

The goals that you set at the beginning of the 4-H year are an important way to track where you want to go with your learning. The goals should be interesting to you. Please avoid goals that are about earning certain ribbons, being the grand champion, or beating last year's grand champion. Focus on how you can improve your skills or knowledge. Doing so may help you win a top spot in a competition. It is helpful to have goals that have a deadline prior to August 1 to avoid re-writing your goal page for year-end awards.

Set a S.M.A.R.T. goal. I would like to learn the history of the Flemish Giant and Holland Lop rabbit breeds before the Kitsap County Spring 4-H Rabbit Show in April of 2019.

"S" Set a goal that is specific.
It is specific. The members would like to learn the history of two rabbit breeds.

"M" Set a goal that is measurable.
It is measurable. If someone asks the member about the history of the Flemish Giant and Holland Lop breeds, and the member can tell about the history of one only breed, the member knows half the goal has been accomplished.

"A" Set a goal that is you can achieve.
It is achievable. Information about the history of these breeds is available. Learning about two breeds is something that can be accomplished over the course of several months.

"R" Set a goal that is realistic.
It is realistic. The member can realistically accomplish this goal by the deadline.

"T" Set a goal that is time based.
It is time based. The deadline to meet this goal is the rabbit show in April.

An example of an unmeasurable goal is "I want to learn about chicken breeds."

An example of a measurable goal is "I want to learn the show disqualifications for Frizzle, Silkie, and Brahma chickens before the spring poultry show this 4-H year."

An easy way to make sure your goal is measurable is to ask yourself, how will I prove it to someone? If your goal is going to require an opinion like "I want to get better at handling my goat during fit and show" you can easily change it measurable by explaining how you will know when you "get better." A measurable goal for this one would be "By June 1, I want to be able to walk my goat into the ring without a lead rope and have her follow me the whole time."

Project Goal Evaluation: How did you do?

Take a look back at the goal(s) you listed at the beginning of the year. How did you do? Evaluate each goal. Using a scale from 5 to 1, rate how you feel you did. Fill in all areas – even if you have not met your goal.

“How did you do?” Circle or underline the rating you give yourself.

Excellent	Very Well	Well	Not So Well	Very Poorly
5	4	3	2	1

Why did you give yourself this rating?

My successes were:

This is what I would change if I could go back to October 1 of this 4-H year and start this goal over again (knowing what I know now). Your answer may be “nothing.”

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACTIVITY LOG

This section is where you write about what you learned and/or did in club meetings and/or what you did at home in your project and/or how you worked on your goal and/or extra activities you participated in that are related to your project. Fill in all three columns. Write complete sentences.

- For the county record book judging in August, you need at least ONE entry per month
- For the top record book in Kitsap judging in October, you will need at least FOUR entries per month.

If your club did not meet in a given month write “No project meeting.” or “No club meeting this month.” The meeting may have been canceled. In that case, write “Meeting canceled.” It may seem silly to write that, but a record book judge does not know why the entry is blank. Be sure to write “Not a member yet.” for the months you were not a member.

Here are example entries.

Nov. 30	Updated Record Book.	I updated my record book and made sure all the pages in my agreement tab were signed. I learned that it takes time to get all signatures.
December	No club meeting this month.	No December club meeting because we have a community service project.
Dec. 2	Made spaghetti.	I made spaghetti for dinner. The sauce was my grandma’s recipe. I learned that my grandma didn’t just open a can for sauce.
Dec. 7	Club Community Service Project	I went with club members to a local nursing home to sing carols in the halls. I learned that I did not like the smells in nursing homes.
Dec. 15	Made Holiday Cards	I made holiday cards to take to a few people I met at the nursing home. I learned that older people are ok.
