

Kitsap Salmon docents

For people engaging in salmon restoration efforts through stewardship and education.

Want to learn about salmon in the Pacific Northwest?

Become a Salmon Docent!

Regional experts will lead participants through lessons in salmon biology, migration, the importance of habitat and local issues facing salmon, through presentations, a field trip and lab work. Upon completion, docents will have the opportunity to share what they've learned at Kitsap Salmon Tours on Nov. 6th.
