4-H Youth Development

Program Contact: Lauren Hrnccirik, 4-H Youth Development Regional Specialist
(509) 754-2011 ext. 4314 • lauren.hrnccirik@wsu.edu

Welcome!

4-H is a youth development program for kids 5 to 19 years of age.

Volunteers teach life skills through a variety of subjects delivered in a variety of ways to youths in local, State, National, & International 4-H programs.

The largest youth program in the nation, 4-H is a national program that has a home in every state in the country! The home of the 4-H Youth Development Program in our state is Washington State University, and it is brought to local communities by Washington State University Extension faculty and staff.
