Old Business/New Business

Summer Sizzler: Fliers have been edited and are ready to be sent to members as needed. It will also have a link on <https://extension.wsu.edu/lincoln-adams/4h/> Horse program policy is listed on the website as well under forms. Robin suggested that a copy of the qualifying times for gaming events be posted on the website for participants.

Ribbons: They were located at the fairgrounds main office. Ribbons need to be ordered. We currently have 24; 1st place rosettes, 17; 2nd place rosettes, 32; 3rd place rosettes, and 70; 1st flat ribbons, 80; 2nd place flats, and 39; 3rd place flat. With tentatively 12 events and approximately 10-12 participants we will need to order at least 120. Robin will research and get ribbons ordered.

Katie has received a contract and has booked our judges room at the Black Bear Motel.

Run out lanes will be used to prepare the participants for state fair.

Body Score Poster: Justine found several Body Score Posters on-line. She will find one that can be used to model the Horse Program Policy and as an educational poster at the County Fair.

New Business:

ANNOUNCEMENTS: reminder of our June 27th is a work day at the Lincoln County Fairgrounds starting at 9am and will continue all day. PACK A LUNCH
